SKY HIGH SCORES
This is to update you on a couple of my recent Game Boy Tetris scores. On July 8th I achieved a score of 404,599 with 200 lines while flying at mach 2 and 53,000 feet in the Concorde between London and New York. This was my first score in excess of 400,000. In one sense, it will always be one of the “higher” Tetris scores ever—53,000 feet high!

My first score in excess of 500,000 was 507,110 on July 26th, even though I had only 167 lines. Photographs of both scores are enclosed. I will write again when I score 600,000.

Steve “Mr. T” Wozniak
Los Gatos, CA

P.S. My “lines” record is 202.

Talk about high scores! Ingenious Apple-man and Video Ace “The Woz,” alias Mr. T, topped November’s NES Achievers list with his amazing Tetris total.

VOLGA BOATMAN
If you want to hear about a fantastic trip with Game Boy, listen up. Last summer I went to Russia. I went on a cruise down the Volga River. We started in Moscow and went to a bunch of places between there and Cazahov. I had my birthday while I was there, but my parents couldn’t find anything for a gift. Then they met a couple on the boat who had two Game Boys, one for themselves and one for their 23-year-old son. My parents bought one from them and gave it to me for my birthday. Tetris was the only game we had, but Russian kids and adults alike loved it! My mom also grabs it every chance she gets.

I am the best in my neighborhood. I can get 129 lines and thousands of points. I speak for Soviets and Americans both: Game Boy is great! Thanks!

A PORTABLE USO
When my husband went to Saudi Arabia in September as part of Operation Desert Shield, he took my son's Game Boy and three games with him.

My son's Game Boy got the workout of its life! The troops spent a lot of time in the desert just waiting around. They said that playing Game Boy was a great way to pass the time.

THE SUPER THETA CHI BROS.

I am 20 years old and a member of Theta Chi Fraternity at Eastern Michigan University and I'm writing to tell you about one of our spring breaks. In March, two of my fraternity brothers and I decided to drive to South Padre Island, which is in the Gulf of Mexico off the southern tip of Texas. It took us a little over 20 hours to get there driving straight through. The Game Boy came in really handy in passing the time on the way there and back, but that's only the beginning. When we arrived, about 14 of our fraternity members were already there. We ended up spending about half of our time playing Game Boy in our hotel room! Tetris and Super Mario Land were the big hits that drained our vacation time.

The humor in this is that even though the weather was nice and the girls were gorgeous, we still spent a lot of our vacation playing Game Boy. It just goes to show that you don't have to take a vacation to have a great time. Next time, just pull out the old Game Boy and save some money!

Mark Preston
Ypsilanti, MI

P.S. Since Luigi doesn't get much recognition, we're making him an honorary Theta Chi. As you can see, he's very happy!

We're seriously worried about you guys. Game Boy also works OUTSIDE.

VIDEO SPOTLIGHT

I am president of a club that goes by N.E.S.A. Our motto is "That was easy." The other members and I are 17, and all together, we have finished more than 150 games. Members Jason and Daniel have Game Boys that we play through big speakers during lunch—the teachers love that! I've gone as far as hooking Game Boy up to a guitar amplifier. At first it sounded pretty obnoxious, but after a few adjustments, it sounded awesome. Sometimes we get together at a member's house and hook the NES up to a stereo.

Some of the games I've finished are Dragon Warrior, Final Fantasy, Shadowgate, Snake's Revenge, Ninja Gaiden, The Guardian Legend, and Ultima.

I've videotaped most of my game endings so I can see them and show them to my friends without spending mega-hours completing them again. I also taped the cinema scenes and exciting conclusion to make my own "Ninja Gaiden—The Movie."

I love playing my NES, but it doesn't take over my life. My first love is beating percussion, and I've even won some soloist awards at jazz festivals.

A tip for Final Fantasy: Some weapons and armor have magical powers; be sure to take advantage of them.

MEGA MAN III

With a blast of blue energy and bundle of new gadgets, the mighty mechanical hero, Mega Man, has burst onto the scene once again. Diabolical Dr. Wily appears to have joined forces with Mega Man's creator, Dr. Light. He has proposed to build, of all things, a giant peace-keeping robot! Elements from eight worlds are needed to complete the invention and it's Mega Man's job to see that those worlds are conquered.

Rush the Robodog To The Rescue

To get out of impossible jams, Mega Man can call on his new pal, Rush. Ultimately, Rush can assume 3 different forms.

BJ The Rush Jet blasts off at 300 km per hour (185 mph).
Mega Man Moves
Dr. Light’s design allows Mega Man maximum maneuverability.

Running
This mechanical wonder can keep up with any robot runner.

Jumping
Pressure Pumps and super suspension let Mega Man bound over obstacles.

Sliding
For extra speed and squeezeability, Mega Man slides into tight areas.

Earn The Powers of the Robot Masters
As Mega Man conquers the eight mining planets and makes them safe for exploration, he will learn the abilities of the planets’ Robot Masters. All of these powers will be useful later in Mega Man’s journey.

Do It By The-Numbers
Some Robot leaders should be toppled before others. Here’s a suggested order of completion:

1. Shadow Blade
2. Hard Knuckle
3. Gemini Laser
4. Magnet Missile
5. Needle Cannon
6. Spark Shock
7. Search Snake
8. Top Spin

The numbers show the order of stages covered in this review.

Power-Up With Special Items
Scattered throughout the Mining Planets are items that will refill Mega Man’s Reserve Energy and ready him for the challenges ahead. Some Power-Up items also appear after enemies are defeated. Collect them when reserves are low and blast enemies when you can to uncover even more items.

ATTENTION!
Here are a couple of things to keep in mind while you’re planet hopping:

Practice Up
Since this is Mega Man’s third adventure, it’ll help to practice with the first two.

Pick Up The Password
When you complete stages, take down the Passwords and keep them for future reference.
Magnet Man Stage

The underground cavern of Magnet Man is littered with mechanical creatures that have special attractions. Keep an eye on them and work against their polarity to avoid being pulled off balance. Keep hopping and watch your step!

Magnet Fly Mania
The Magnet Fly glides Mega Man upward with a powerful magnetic force and carry him away. Move him left and right to break free, but make sure that he's on solid ground. There are a lot of bottomless pits in the vicinity.

A Mysterious Encounter
The mysterious Break Man maze no real harm, although his weapon is real enough. He seems to want to try Mega Man for more formidable opponents. When he's had enough, he'll move on and open the passage. Slide under Break Man as he jumps toward you and fire at him from behind. You'll encounter him later.

HARD MAN STAGE

Fight through the rocky Hard Man Stage with as much power as you can muster. There's some heavy machinery there.

Scroll Away The Enemy
The Big Bee flies onto the screen from left to right and unleashes its attack of 5 smaller Bumble Bees. Wait until it gets to the right edge of the screen and move to the left so that the Bee scrolls right off the screen.

Slide Or Be Eaten
Jaws jump from the grates if you stop moving. Slide over them for an extra surge of speed and keep going. They can take a real bite out of your Energy Reserve.

Slide over the grates to avoid the grasp of the jaws.
MAGNET MAN

Magnet Man has two forms of attack. Work against his awesome magnetic pull by firing when he relaxes its strength. Then slide under him and as he jumps and keep running from the Magnet Missiles.

Step Lightly

Blocks appear and disappear in a set pattern. Study the pattern closely. Then jump from one block to the next, keeping in mind where the blocks will appear next.

Double Trouble

Jaws and Bees both threaten with sharp attacks in this area. You can scroll the Bee away, though, just as you did in the beginning of the stage, by sliding to the fifth grate and then sliding back to the left. You'll never see the Bee again. Then jump and slide past the Jaws.

HARD MAN

The Hard Knuckles come two at a time and bounce off the walls in your battle with the big man. Hit him with Magnet Missiles before he fires. Then jump over the Knuckles. When he leaps, run in the opposite direction and get ready for the ground to shake.

Break Man Again!

Break Man's appearance in the Hard Man Stage happens in an area with a center platform. Slide to the opposite side and fire through the platform to stop his attack.
Tough enemies and tricky jumps are abundant in the dizzying Top Man Stage. In this world, and think out every section. This is one world the road to the Robot Master is more challenging than the fight itself.

Get The Right Angle
The Top Dispenser at the top of the stairs will have the advantage if you fall to the bottom of the screen. Before you drop, hang onto the last rung of the ladder and fire from there. You'll be angled just right to hit him.

Hop To It
The Picks Dozer races on the platform. Use the Rush Ball to jump up to the level of the Dozer as it faces to the right. Then surprise it with a barrage from your Cannon. When you beat the Dozer, you'll clear the way to a 1-Up and an Energy Puffet.

Keep The Lights On
Holograms make the rest of the world go dark. Double back as soon as you see them. Once they're off the screen, they will disappear for good.

Face the last Hologram with a spray from your Cannon. If you connect with three shots, it will disappear and the lights will stay on.

After the initial drop, the Shadow Man stage features a long horizontal passage with relatively weak enemies. Try to conserve your energy for the final fight with the Robot Master.
MEGA MAN III

TOP MAN!

Don't Panic And You Won't Fall

The Spinning Top is not as tricky as they look. Mega Man will spin out to the edge while he's standing on them, but he won't fall unless you over-correct. Take it easy and jump to the next Top when it's even with, or lower than, Mega Man. You're almost to the end!

Bobcat Bounce

The Bobcat releases two Balls. Jump over them and pull the Bobcat with Cannon fire. You should be able to clear the way after two or three sprays from the Cannon.

Jump And Fire!

TOP MAN

Top Man attacks with a simple pattern. First, he throws three Tops into the air which stop and converge where Mega Man is standing. Then he spins and charges. Send out the Hard Knuckle and avoid the Tops. Then, leap over the fiend as he approaches. You’ll topple Top Man in no time.

Avoid Surprise Attacks

Parachutes drop from above in this area. They could cause trouble if you’re caught in mid-air. Wait on the edge of each platform and defeat the Parachutes before you jump the gaps. You’ll knock them out of the sky before they can return the favor.

SHADOW MAN

The best way to quit Shadow Man is to hit him with Top Spin. If you don’t have it, you’ll have a hard time with his power and speed. Switch to Top Spin and as Shadow Man slides, spin ‘til he’s history.

When you take on Shadow Man, use Top Spin. Four direct Top Spin hits will beat him.

SHADOW MAN!
SPARK MAN STAGE

With the exception of the electrically charged traps which are unique to the Spark Man Stage, this world features enemies that you have seen the likes of before. Take 'em one at a time.

Wait For A Recharge

After letting loose a surge of current, the moving electric shockers take a moment to recharge. Make your move as the shockers slide toward you.

Don't Think, Just Jump!

The platforms in this area rocket toward the spike-lined ceiling when you land on them. As soon as they take you to the right height, jump!

SNAKE MAN STAGE

The eccentric Snake Man has lined the underground areas of his stage with green scales and fireball spitting, mechanical snake heads.

Come Out Shooting

As soon as you enter the area, the snakes start firing. Jump in and spray them with shots from the Arm Cannon. Two hits will get them. If you fire rapidly, you may be able to knock out two snakes with one barrage.

Over And Under

Three-fireball attacks are the specialty of the big Snake. Start on the far left and jump to the right up and over the first two fireballs as you're unloading the Arm Cannon. You'll come down as the third shot just clears your head. Move to the left again and repeat.
MEGA MAN III

Watch for Falling Blocks
Large square blocks fall from the chutes at a steady rate. Blast them and they will often produce bonuses in the form of Energy Pellets and 1-Ups. Then collect the bonuses by sliding through before the next block falls. If you try to make a run for it, you stand to lose more than you'll gain. This slide often works as a good short and fast alternative to the run.

SPARK MAN

Seven shots from the Shadow Blade will knock the power out of Spark Man. Keep your distance as he sends out the small sparks and hit him as he gears up.

Snake Man

Snake Man's most threatening attack is direct contact. Jump over or slide under him as he approaches and try to get to the other side of the screen. Then hit him with a shot from the Arm Cannon.

Take a Flying Leap

These platformers are much like the Tops of the Top Man Stairs. They seem unstable but they won't knock you off unless you panic. Take them back to the top of the screen and then jump to the next one.

Dual Attack

Bomb Flyers are indestructible, but they do fly more predictably if you give them a shot from the Arm Cannon. When two of them come out at once, jump and let them both with a spray of fire. They'll mend their cloud links and bullet toward you, making it easier for you to avoid them.
The barrage of enemy fire on the slippery surface of the glacial Gemini Man Stage is only the tip of the iceberg when compared to what waits under the surface. The battle won’t be any easier when you finally make it to the leader, either.

Thaw ’em Out and Shoot ’em Down

When you thaw out the Fish Eggs with your fire, the Torpedo Fish will swarm. Try not to thaw out more than you can breathe at once. Then blast them for breaths. Leave and come back for a bonus build-up.

Get Them At The Source

The Penguin Makers produce a steady flow of Bumber Penguins. Jump over the little guys as they come out and, when you’re at the peak of your jump, aim for the Penguin Maker’s crank. Fire rapid fire showers from the Arm Cannon should send the Penguin Makers to the scrap heap.

With the exception of some very challenging spike traps, the kingdom of Needle Man should be fairly simple to get through. Take it easy and beat each enemy as it comes.

Don’t Fire Until You See...

Mega Man has been fighting off Hard Hats since his first adventure. They’re only vulnerable when you get clean and the Hard Hat rises. Wait until you see their eyes and fire before they can get off a shot.
MEGA MAN III

A Change of Heart
The behavior of Break Man is getting curiouser and curiouser. When he meets with you in this stage, he won't put up a fight at all. He'll simply open the way to the endgame and disappear. Break Man may not mean any harm at all.

Get A Ride
If you've defeated Shadow Man, you'll have access to the Rush Marine. This underwater passage is the perfect place to demonstrate its effectiveness. Call Rush and let him give you a ride to the end. If you forget to pick up Energy Pellets along the way, the Rush Marine will run out of steam.

Do It The Hard Way
If you haven't earned the Rush Marine, or if it's out of energy, you'll still be able to traverse the waterway. Use the Rush Cell to get to the first platform, then get hopping. Jump before the Torpedo hits and take out Dragon Flies when they get to your level.

Watch For Spikes!
The Spiky Toppers always emerge from the surface at the same rate. Wait until the first one goes down and make a run for it. You should be able to clear them unharmed.

Gemini Man!
Gemini Man splits in half and circles the room. He won't fire unless you fire first. Hop and shoot.

Needle Man!
Try to stay as far from Needle Man as you possibly can and avoid the shower of Needles with quick jumps. Slide under him as he bounds towards you and hit him with the Gemini Laser. Four shots should do it.
Having conquered the first eight stages, Mega Man will be charged with the powers of the Robot Masters. And just in time, as a new challenge begins. In each of four new stages, Mega Man will encounter two of the Robot Masters from his last adventure in the form of the devious Doc Robot. This should be a good indication that Dr. Wily's allegiance to Dr. Light was purely a set-up. Now Wily is trying to keep Mega Man busy so that he can build the Peace-Keeping Robot and use it for his own diabolical schemes.

Break The Giant Spring
The Giant Spring sends out harmless-looking but powerful Homing Missiles. Aim for the Spring first, then try to track down the Missiles and get them before they get you.

Aerial Acrobatics
The incentive to stay on the Rollers is even stronger here. If you fall, the spike will blast Mega Man instantly. The outer Rollers spin counter-clockwise and the outer Rollers spin clockwise. When you get to the center Roller ride it from the right edge to the left edge and jump. If you time it right, you'll be able to jump far enough to land on the left Roller.

Keep Your Balance
If you watch the hubs of the Rollers closely, you'll be able to see which direction they are spinning. Hop onto them and take short hops against the spin to keep your balance. Hop off when you have a chance.

Knock The Bug Off The Ladder
While you're moving up to the next section, you'll come across a ladder-climbing creature. Use the Shadow Blade to stab it or fire a shot straight up or hit the Gemini Laser beam off the wall and hit it on the rebound.

Scroll Away The Sparks
Spark Man's shocking zap traps are back. As soon as you see them appear on the right side of the screen, back up until they disappear off the edge. When you return, the trap will be gone. Scrolling away enemies is often a much better alternative to taking them on directly. By doing so, you'll be able to conserve your energy for the challenges ahead.
METAL MAN

Stay on the left side of the screen as you take on Doc Robot in his Metal Man guise. Leap to avoid the stream of blades and hit him with the Magnet Missiles. If you run out of Missiles, try the slower Hard Knuckle and time it so Doc Robot is on the ground when the Knuckle slides over.

Spike Alert!

The shaft is lined with deadly spikes. Memorize the map and correct your fall so you’ll stay between the spikes at all times. If you so much as graze the spikes, Mega Man will burst instantly. If you’re not ready to align in mid-air, you’ll never make it to the bottom.

Jump The Blocks

When you last saw the dropping square blocks, in the original Spark Man stage, you were able to blast them and slide to the next slide unharmful. That’s impossible this time, because two of the block stacks border bottomless pits. To get to the other side without getting stamped, you should wait for the first block to fall. Then hop onto that block and hop again quickly before the next one comes down. You won’t be able to earn bonus this time, though you will escape with your life.

QUICK MAN

One of the most awesome enemies from Mega Man II is the incredible Quick Man. When Doc Robot takes on the abilities of this menace who lives up to his name, he’ll hit Mega Man with a fast and furious attack. Make sure that Mega Man has plenty of energy and try to take Doc Robot out with the Search Snake or Gemini Laser.
SHADOW MAN REVISITED

Dr. Wily has really made things difficult for Mega Man now. Even without enemies, this stage would be a challenge with all of its tricky obstacles. One mistake means disaster.

Look Out Below

Fall straight down in the first two spike-lined drops here. In the third drop, favor the right side to avoid the spikes at the bottom. When you drop, make sure that the Arm Cannon is blazing. Defeat enemies on the right quickly, to clear the way and move on.

Step Quickly And Lightly

The trap door platforms won't hold Mega Man for very long. If you hesitate for even a fraction of a second, Mega Man will drop to sure doom. As soon as you land, jump to the next platform or you'll never make it. Practice on the platforms that hover over solid ground first, then try to traverse the gap. Of course, an alternative is platform hopping in the sleek Rush Jet. Watch the power gauge, though, or you'll plummet.

Heat Man

Heat Man starts by tossing three exploding bursts. Run from them, then hit Heat Man with a Shadow Blade. He'll turn into a ball of fire and blaze to the other side of the screen. Jump it and repeat the maneuver six times.

Let 'em Drop

The Parachutes drop again in a hole-riddled area. Wait on the edges of the platforms until the Parachutes fall and pick them off before you attempt to jump the gaps. The Parachutes fall one or two to a platform.

Heat Man!

The bombs are aimed directly for Mega Man when they're thrown. Get away when they're in the air and hit Heat Man with the Shadow Blade on the run. The Top Spin also works well if you can get close enough.
Password Power

The Mega Man Password system keeps track of the stages that you've conquered and the number of Energy Tanks that you've saved. When you start the game with a saved Password you'll always begin with two Mega Men in reserve at the Stage Select screen. Passwords for Dr. Wily's hideout always let you start at the beginning of the hideout.

WOOD MAN

Nothing in Mega Man's arsenal can penetrate Wood Man's Leaf Shield. Avoid the falling Leaves and jump over the Leaf Shield as it flies towards you. Then counter with the Needle Cannon before Wood Man can form another Shield. He's tough!

---

The Story Thus Far

Mega Man has been on the trail of Dr. Wily for more than two years now. It may be hard to believe but Dr. Wily and Dr. Light were once good friends. Here's what has happened so far.

1. The original Mega Man adventure pitted Mega Man against Dr. Wily, the victim of a mind-altering accident. Wily stole Dr. Light's Robots and reprogrammed them to work for the forces of evil.

2. After Mega Man bested Dr. Wily the first time, Wily constructed a whole new army of menacing robots with nothing short of World Domination in his sights. Fortunately, Dr. Light's unstoppable bio bomb was called upon to aid humankind.
The frozen tundra of the Gemini Man Stage is even more littered with hazards in this second run through. When you come across Energy Pellets for special weapons, be sure to power up Rush's three forms. The Rush Marine will come in especially handy in this stage. Gemini Man is replaced by Flash Man and rubble Man, but the weakest Robot Masters from Mega Man II. Getting to them will be the real challenge.

Blaze Across The Surface
Magnetic Flies again cause trouble on the surface of the Gemini Man stage. This time, there are even more creatures in the area. If you have enough Magnet Missile power, it might serve you well to use it here. You won't have to take time to aim since the Magnet Missile seeks out enemies with its special magnetic powers.

Use Special Weapons Wisely
Since you have all of the Special Weapons during these advanced stages, you should remember that you can use them for much more than taking out Robot Masters. When you come across Energy Pellets be sure to power up.

Undersea Adventure!
Use either the Rush Marine or Rush Jet to carry Mega Man over the sea floor spikes. Make sure you collect all of the Energy Pellets to keep their motors running. The Rush Marine can even jump out of the water temporarily to collect Pellets in the air.

FLASH MAN
There's no guarantee against Flash Man's blast because he freezes Mega Man before he fires. Try to guard against direct contact and use the Needle Cannon or Gemini Laser to knock out his energy. He won't be able to withstand more than seven hits from either weapon.
Power Up Completely

Just like before, the frozen Fish Eggs present Power-Up possibilities. Threw them with the Arm Cannon and blast the fish. You can earn a lot of Energy Proliferate. Then leave the area and return. The Fish Eggs will be back and ready to throw again. If you take the time, you can be completely energized before you leave.

Beware Of Falling Bugs

The holes in the corners of the ice blocks may go unnoticed until Bugs start dropping from them and try to de-energize Mega Man. When you see a hole in a block, proceed cautiously and blast the Bugs as they fall through. Even small energies should be treated seriously. Every bit of energy that you can save by busting them counts.

Step Right Up

Besides providing Power-Ups, the Fish Eggs can be used as platforms to get to higher areas. Threw the top row, as in this example, and you'll be able to use the bottom row as a place to jump to and move up over the ice. If you blast the bottom row, you'll have to call on Rush to get to the other side.

BUBBLE MAN

Beware of the spike-lined ceiling in the watery depths of Bubble Man's chamber. Mega Man can jump very high in water and you've got to make sure that he avoids contact with the top of the room. Bubble Man tosses bouncing bubbles that move slowly enough that you may be able to avoid them with quick maneuvering. Use the Spark Shock or Shadow Blade and you'll beat him with just seven hits.
The shortest of the four returning stages, and probably the easiest to conquer, features fights with Air Man and Crash Man. Save your energy for the battles with these Robot Masters and blaze through the rest of the stage. You’re practiced enough now that you’ll be able to take on these challenges with minimal damage.

Nail Needle Harry With The Cannon
The porcupine-like Needle Harry sends his Needles flying for defense. Blast him and his Needles with rapid fire from the Arm Cannon and jump when he rolls toward you. Make sure you finish him off so that he can’t get you from behind. If Harry is above you, clear the way so that he has room to land when he falls.

Run And Slide!
The Spikes come out in order allowing you to run right through. The last one, though, might snag you if your timing is just a little off. To ensure that it doesn’t get you, run past the first three spikes and then slide past the last one.

AIR MAN
The indestructible Air Tornadoes of Air Man make your meeting with this fiend a real challenge. Try to get between the Tornadoes and Air Man. You may be able to slide under them. Then pelt him with Magnet Missiles or Spark Shocks.

A Giant Hard Hat!
At last, the leader of the Hard Hats appears. This one is gigantic! Aim for the cross on the Helmet and blast it while it’s rising. In the air, the Hard Hat will produce smaller creatures. Ignore them and keep firing. Use Ruuk Jet if you can.
MEGA MAN III

Rush Jet Is The Only Way To Fly

A very long distance between platforms calls for the mighty Rush Jet. Rush should be completely powered up before you attempt to cross the gap. If you're low on Rush Jet Energy, stay on the platform and defeat enemies for Energy Pellets.

Fly Above The Fray

Try to keep high while you're crossing the gap. There are fewer enemies toward the top of the screen. Drop down, though, if you need to collect an Energy Pellet. Conserve Energy by cutting off the Rush Jet while dropping.

CRASH MAN

Run from one side of the screen to the next and fire at Crash Man when you get to the edge. Crash Man's Crash Bombs are very powerful. Avoid them at all costs and try to counter with the Hard Knuckle. The Knuckle is slow, but it has to connect only four times in order to obliterate Crash Man.

Another Mysterious Meeting

After you complete the Doc Robot Stages, Break Man will appear for another strange confrontation. He may be trying to tell you something. Find out as the story unfolds.

A New Approach

The Hard Hats try to surprise Mega Man with a propeller supported attack from above in this area. Wait for them to get close to the ground, then let them have it.
Dr. Wily Returns!

Dr. Wily, that insidious fiend, now shows his true self! In his rebuilt hi-tech hideaway, Wily conducts the business of a super villain and makes anything but peace-keeping plans for the robot that he and Dr. Light designed. Once again, Mega Man must conquer a multi-stage castle and encounter a slew of amazing new inventions to get to the bottom of Wily’s plans. He’ll need every bit of skill and energy he has to beat this menace.

THE FINAL ROUND!
The real challenge has just begun. Dr. Wily’s new castle features six stages of monster crunching madness.

NOT SO FAST, WILY!

Dr. Wily’s Skull Compound
Dr. Wily has updated and remodeled his ancient Skull Compound. Now the fight reckless as ever!
1st Stage
In the lowest level of the Skull compound, Mega Man will fall into a pool with a terrible Turtle-producing machine. This stage will be a breeze, considering what is to come.

2nd Stage
Not only has the Skull Compound been rebuilt but so has one of Mega Man’s most durable enemies. Watch for the return of the Rock Monster from Mega Man’s first adventure! There’s no Elec Man Beam to save you this time!

3rd Stage
You’ve heard about evil twins. How about evil triplets? Wily has perfected a robot clone device and he’s made three copies of Mega Man. Only one of them can be hurt by Mega Man’s attack.

4th Stage
Will the Robot Masters ever truly be defeated? Wily’s made perfect clones of all of his newest creations, and he has set up a new trap.

5th Stage
Mega Man closes in on the evil Dr. Wily himself. What kinds of surprises does he have up his sleeves? Will Mega Man be able to stop him? What if the Robot is complete? What part, if any, does Break Man play in the final confrontation? There’s only one way to find out.

Is This Wily’s Last Stand?
Why Your Game Paks Never Forget

Starting in this issue, we'll include extra information about games in a data box. Some of the info covers memory sizes and configurations—information you can't get anywhere else. In the following pages, we'll tell you everything you need to know about ROMs, RAM, MMCs, and more.

It all began with NROMs

Let's start at the beginning. Computers like the NES Control Deck are impressive machines. You can do everything with them from designing spacecraft to rescuing Princess Toadstool from the evil clutches of King Koopa. But even the most powerful super computers are useless without programs to run on them. Game Paks, of course, are really just programs that your Control Deck can run. As you also probably know, programs consist of stored bits of data, or memory, in the form of numbers. What you might not know is how that memory is stored in your Game Paks, or that different games use different types of components. Why all the differences? Because the NES was designed so that the latest technology could be used in each new generation of Game Paks. It's like an RC car. When a faster motor comes out, you buy one and slap it in your old racer. That's how games get bigger and better while your Control Deck stays the same.

In 1985, the first NES games appeared using the NROM. ROM, which stands for Read Only Memory, is like a book with words that can't be changed or added to. By today's standards, the two micro-chips—one for the program and one for characters—were rather small. The Program ROM's maximum memory size was 256 K and the Character ROM's max memory was 64 K. Of course, small is a relative term. 256 K means 256,000 bits of information. Actually, one K equals 1024 bits, so 256K is a bit larger than 256,000 bits. But size isn't everything.

Down to Basics

The diagram shows how NROM memory is used. The PRG contains game rules, like how high Mario jumps, while the CHR has information about what Mario looks like. Work RAM stores game data, like your score.
STEPPING UP WITH THE UNROM

It wasn't long before Nintendo started looking for ways to expand the capabilities of the NES. The UNROM was one result. The UNROM Game Pak has a PRG ROM and a RAM chip. RAM means Random Access Memory. It's a place to store information until it's needed, like a filing cabinet. Background and moving object characters for the current area of the game are stored in RAM, which is a more versatile method than storing everything in a ROM. The UNROM allows greater memory size and a process called Bank Switching, which is described below.

MMC: CUSTOM CRAFTED FUN

To understand Bank Switching, picture a game program as one page in a storybook. The first thing you'll notice is that you can only write so much on a single page. A one page story might be okay, but if you want to expand the story, you'll need to add more pages. It's the same with games. Program size is limited, but you can add programs to the chip. Bank Switching allows you to have several programs in one chip. When a new area of the game is reached, you'll automatically switch to the appropriate program, which is useful in big games with many variations or worlds.

An even bigger revolution came along in the form of Memory Management Controllers, or MMCs. An MMC is a custom designed set of circuits in a chip that allow specialized functions. Some of the circuits, which are also called Logic Gates, increase the speed or efficiency of computations. Others direct the program to specific locations in memory, sort of like doors that open if you have the right key. The UNROM used off-the-shelf Logic Gates, which took up a lot of space. MMCs are more compact, cheaper, and they also allow larger program and character memory size. Some of the other benefits include being able to scroll in different directions and the use of battery backed up RAM that can save your game progress from one play session to the next. When the first wave of games with MMCs hit, they made quite a splash. The Legend of Zelda, Metroid and Kid Icarus opened up vast new worlds of NES fun and challenge. Most new games today use MMCs, and newer and better MMCs are under development all the time. On the next page you'll find an encyclopedia of MMCs currently in use and some of their special features.

It's Only Logical

Logic Gates

MMC

Logic Gates are like a buffet dinner. Your choices are great, but if you only want dessert, everything else just takes up space and is wasted. With MMCs you jump straight to the dessert table.
The first MMC chip to be used for the NES is still the most popular today. Many of the classic games like The Legend of Zelda and Metroid became possible only after the MMC1 was developed. In Metroid, for instance, much of the challenge and excitement comes from the ability of the game to scroll both horizontally and vertically. That kind of change of pace keeps a game fresh and exciting all the way to the end. Extra memory can also translate into more worlds and enemies.

The complexity of some classic MMC1 games has kept them in the Top 30 for years.

To date, only one game has been designed for use with the MMC2, but that game is one of the biggest hits of all time. Punch-Out!! is unique in several ways. First, the opponents are big characters. You can actually see expressions on their faces or subtle movements of their feet or hands, which are often signals to throw a punch. Second, the game program has a great number of variations, which requires extra memory.

The MMC3 is currently a hit with programmers and game players alike. SMB3 is the biggest NES hit ever.

Along with additional memory size, the MMC3 allows some great innovations like the split screen scrolling in Super Mario Bros. 3. The scoreboard at the bottom of the picture is actually a second screen, which stays put even as Mario sprints from left to right. It's made possible by a timer function that was specially built into the MMC3. Scrolling at an angle is also possible, as seen in NES Play Action Football.

In the early days of NROMs, if you wanted to finish a game you had to do it during one play session. That limited the complexity of games, because no matter how good a game is, players are only human and have to stop and eat or sleep every so often. In a RAM chip, where game information is stored, memory takes the form of switches that are either turned on or off. If a switch is on it represents the digit one, and if it's off, it represents zero. Together, the ones and zeroes make up numbers, which is how computer information is stored. Without the power turned on, all the switches are deactivated and the information is lost. By putting a battery in the Game Pak, game data can be stored as long as the life of the battery—about five years.

To see how color definition is improved in games like Castlevania III, study the Color Area illustration above. Each Color Area can have up to four different colors, but with the MMC5 the Color Area is smaller. In the same space where older games had one Color Area with four possible colors, the MMC5 allows four Color Areas with 16 possible colors.
COMPRESSION

Compression is a programming technique that allows a programmer to pack as much information as possible into a limited memory space. Imagine that the Tetris blocks shown below are each a program.

You can see that the first example takes up more space than the second, even though they both contain the same programs. This is one reason why memory size alone doesn't tell the whole story.

PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER

BEHIND THE MASK ROM

One of the most common misconceptions about NES games is that you can record and erase them like tape cassettes. Erasable/Programmable and Programmable ROMs do exist (EPROMs and PROMs), but they are very expensive and are chiefly used for NES research and development. To reduce costs, NES Game Paks use what is called a Mask ROM. The process begins by converting the game program into an actual integrated microcircuit. Using a photographic process, the circuit is reproduced on thin silicon wafers, so the game information isn't just stored in the chip, it's part of the chip. Then the wafers are sandwiched together and attached to connector pins. Below are the two most common configurations of Mask ROM chips. The major difference is that the Flatpack Chip is smaller and more compact so it can fit inside Game Boy Paks.

THE BOTTOM LINE

As you've seen, Game Paks are not all created equal. Some have special built-in features that allow greater variety in game design. But the measure of any great game is not memory size or whether it uses a MMC1 or MMC5. The real test is whether or not it's fun to play. Dr. Mario, a 256 K x 256 K game, requires less memory than many other new games. But once you start playing, it's almost impossible to stop. Remember, it's the stuff that memory is made of that counts.
Dungeon Dwelling Danger Awaits

Long have you trained in the mystic arts under the mighty Mordamir of the Crimson Keep. So when your teacher mysteriously disappears, you loyally take up the task of locating him. From Mordamir’s notebook, The Codex Of The Serpent, you learn of his earlier explorations in the Labyrinth of Eternity, a dungeon located beneath the dragon-devastated city of Erinoch. You decide that he must have made another venture to that mad subterranean maze, and set off to find him, armed with your trusty sword and magic staff. Prepare yourself for a dungeon adventure like no other. Your surroundings are portrayed in detailed three-dimensional graphics, with some of the best character animation ever seen on the NES. An epic tale of daring danger and deceit will unfold before you in The Immortal.
Gain The Items You Need

As you venture through the rooms and passages of the dungeon, you'll find many of the items you'll need lying around—discarded or dropped by their previous owners. Search every corner of the dungeon for these objects, and pick up everything! Even though some items can be dangerous, they will only harm you if used improperly. Not everyone in the dungeon is an enemy. Some Dwarven merchants ply their trade in the depths of the dungeon, and will sell or even give you articles you need. Be sure to try to talk to everyone!

The Face Of Battle

When you meet hostile beings, you'll switch to a close-up combat screen. A rhythmic sweeping motion with your sword will quickly cut short the career of any foe. If the enemy starts pouncing you, duck out of the way for a breather. Once you start combat, the battle is to the death—yours or his.

Dungeon Denizens

- Monstrous Menaces -

You will find at first that all the monstrous inhabitants of the dungeon are hostile to humans. However, some are intelligent and may be reasoned with. Even brainless, non-human creatures can be tamed in certain situations.

- GOBLINS -
These creatures control the dungeon's upper levels.

- TROLLS -
Trolls are wild and war-like. You will never make allies of these brutes.

- BATS -

- FLYING LIZARDS -

- WILL O' WISPS -

- WORMS -

Unliving Obstacles

- Hazards And Traps -

Throughout the Labyrinth of Eternity you will encounter inanimate pitfalls, puzzles and perils. These can block your progress or end your journey altogether, but with skill and patience, they can be avoided. Cannons will weaken you with magical fireballs. Fire Traps in the floor mean instant incineration. Hidden Pit Traps can be escaped, but it takes skill. Floor Spikes skewer you if they are triggered, as do Arrows shot from the wall.

- CANNONS -

- FIRE TRAPS -

- HIDDEN PIT TRAPS -

- FLOOR SPIKES -

- ARROWS -

SPECIAL TIPS
Pits with ladders in them lead to the lower levels of the dungeon. You must approach the pits from the side closest to the ladder or you'll fall to your death. Be patient!
Level 1: Into Eternity

The Codex Of The Serpent documents the entrance to the labyrinth in great detail.

Find The Exit!

Your goal in each level of the dungeon is to find clues that will help you delve further into the dark depths. The maps give you a look at the floor plan of each level. The locations of items are marked on the maps, but they still may be difficult to find, so search carefully. In the first level, your most difficult task will be to locate and open the passage to the second level. Along the way you’ll find several items that will help you here and later in your quest.

The Gauntlet Of Doom

As you raid the dungeon in search of your lost mentor, you will encounter many traps. To avoid making this your last crusade, try not to step on the traps’ triggers. Follow the pattern drawn on the map below to escape the onslaught of the Arrow Traps. If you make a misstep and set off the trap you can still escape if you run straight for the door. Whatever you do, don’t hesitate or take any side trips in here, or you’ll be lost! In the next room, stick to the walls to avoid the pit traps in the central area of the chamber.

The Gallery Of Shadow

Light the torch in this room with a fireball so you can see the Shades. Do your best to avoid contact, but if you must fight, swing your sword from side to side. Although you can’t see these creatures of darkness, you can damage them.

The Key Of Light

A polished pendant will allow you to reflect the beam of light onto the gem in the floor, opening the door to the next level.
Level 2: The Lock Of Lindli

In times ancient, the Dwarven locksmith Lindli devised the most secure fastenings ever known.

What You’ll Find And Where To Use It:
- Red Gem—Level 2
- Slime Protection Potion—Level 2
- Granite Stone—Level 2
- Oust of Complaisance—Level 2
- Door Key—Level 2
- Red Gem—Level 2

A Challenging Puzzle...

You'll have to search out the Goblin King and defeat him (using an onorthodox method) in order to discover the secret behind the exit from this level. Along the way, you'll encounter more Goblins to combat, as well as the deadly flesh-eating Slime. An ornery Dwarven gem-cutter must also be convinced to part with his wares. Soften him up with the Dust Of Complaisance.

Charm The Will O' The Wisps

Cast Mordamir's Charm Spell to tame these flitting fire-beings as soon as they approach.

Unlocking Lindli's Puzzle

Although they are difficult to see you will find 12 gem-size indentations in the final room (one at each point and in the center of the three triangles). If you place the three Red Gems in the correct impressions (remember the Goblin King's last words) the secret doorway to the levels below will open.

Transform A Granite Stone

The corrosive acid of the Slime turns stones into gems. Use the Slime Protection Potion for safety as the Slime transforms the rock. The three Red Gems are the key to the exit lock.
Level 3: An Alliance Of Convenience

It shouldn’t come as a surprise to you that the Goblins and Trolls are at war with each other. Both races are battling for access to the life-giving spring in the depths of the dungeon. Of the two tribes, the Goblins seem more likely to befriend a human wizard, but so far you have met no Goblin allies.

Troll Territory
In The Immortal, you’ll have to accomplish tasks and find and use items in the correct order, or you’ll be unable to continue. There are sometimes alternate ways of accomplishing certain things. In Level 3, you can use the Protean Ring to get past the Goblin Guard and get his treasure. Or, you can battle him for it. Using cunning to get past obstacles, rather than fighting through them, will save valuable life points. Making friends of your enemies can also be useful.

A Wizard In Goblin’s Clothing
Wear the Protean Ring to slip past the Goblin Guard and loot his treasure. Don’t wear the ring in the presence of royalty.

Piercing Peril
To avoid being skewered in this dangerous chamber, follow the pattern drawn below.

Pick A Fight
When you see the pair of Troll guards, toss the Ritual Knife at them. They will each think the other threw it and start fighting, allowing you to sneak past them.

Activate The Teleporter
Trigger the Teleporter by standing in the flame when it appears green and dropping the Red Gem.

What You’ll Find And Where To Use It:
- Protean Ring—Level 3
- 50 Gold Pieces—Level 5
- 3 Troll Bombs—Level 3
- Troll Knife—Level 3
- Red Gem—Level 3
Level 4: Magic Carpet

As you progress through the levels of The Labyrinth Of Eternity, you will learn much about the practice of magic. . . . In Level 4, you will be required to master the most difficult magical vehicle created—the Magic Carpet!

Soar High Above
The Worm Infested Floor

Flying the Magic Carpet is one of the most difficult skills to master in The Immortal, but you must use this magical item to get across the floor in this level. The Carpet can rapidly pick up speed, and in confined rooms with Fire Traps on the floor, this can be deadly. Take it slow and tap the controller in the direction you want to go. Press in the opposite direction to stop. Although your carpet has a limited duration, don’t fly at a reckless speed, and try not to bounce off the walls.

The Doorstep Is Safe

If you tread upon the floor of this room, you risk death from the Worms beneath its surface. It is safe to stand near the doors. You must dismount to get through them, as you can’t fly your carpet through closed portals.

Watch For Hidden Hazards

Your view of the Fire Traps can be obscured, because of the view perspective of the adventure. Steer clear of these areas.

Ana’s Ring

A dangerous side-trip will take you to Ana’s Ring. Return this ring to Ana and she’ll reward you with a hint on exiting the level.

If you already know how to exit the level, you don’t need to talk to Ana or give her the ring. But if you don’t, you’ll get a different ending.

Exit The Level

The rings in Ana’s hint have nothing to do with jewelry. To exit the level, run three rings around the triangle design.
Level 5: The Goblin's Scheme

Word has spread through the Goblin tribe that you are their ally. Two Goblin leaders will fill you in on their plan to gain access to the Fountain Of Youth, which is being guarded by a creature called the Norlac. The Norlac also blocks your way to the lowest level, where you hope to find Mordamir, so you must help them!

What You'll Find And Where To Use It:
- LARGE EGG—LEVEL 5
- SHRINKING POTION—LEVEL 5
- 150 GOLD PIECES—LEVEL 5
- BOTTLE OF WATER—LEVEL 5
- WORM SENSOR—LEVEL 5
- DOOR KEY—LEVEL 5

A Living Mine Field
Prepare to encounter the most dangerous room in the Labyrinth Of Eternity—the Red Room of Worm Doom. If you thought the Flying Carpet was a tough magic item to master, wait until you try the Worm Sensor. It will emit a beep which will increase in pitch as you walk towards a Worm. If it pings rapidly, you're about to get attacked by a worm. You'll have to solve another mystic lock riddle to reach the final dungeon level.

Into A Mouse Hole
Use the Potion from the merchant to make your way through the hole in the wall. Avoid the Traps until the potion wears off, then defeat them. Open the chest and immediately drink the bottle of water inside.

Red Room Of Worm Door
Use the Worm Sensor or follow the pattern to the door.

Train A Lizard Hatchling
The Dwarven merchant who sold you the Shrinking Potion gave you the clue you need to exit this level. Drop the Bait on the door trigger, and the freshly hatched Flying Lizard will hold it down while you climb down the ladder. This is the one place where you can safely drop the Bait.

Once you escape Level 5, the Goblin Chief's plan will begin. You may not live to regret your agreeing to help the Goblins!
Level 6: The Norlac’s Lair

Here you will finally find Dunric, but you’re too late to save him from death at the hands of a Troll. Before he expires, Dunric gives you two important spells. You are now close to the Norlac’s watery lair, and this is the most challenging part of your adventure. As you float through the twisting passages, avoid hitting the walls, because it will slow you down. Once the Norlac gives chase, don’t hesitate or its slimy tentacles will drag you to a watery grave.

Level 7: The Dragon And The Wizard

Although you almost died trying to get the Norlac into the whirlpool, a kind Goblin rescues and revives you, only to face the final challenge. Waiting in the deepest depths of the dungeon is the dragon that began all the trouble, but there’s still no sign of Mordamir. Unbelievably, all the evidence seems to show that he is working with the evil Trolls to take over the Fountain Of Youth!

The Final Conflict

By the time you reach the final battle, you should have the following items: Statue Spell, Amulet, Gold, Fire Protection Spell, Blink Spell and Magnetic Hands Spell. You must use these items and spells in the proper combination and at the proper time to defeat the dragon. Remember that you can use some of the spells only a limited number of times. May the Wise Council Of Wizards guide your hand! Destroy the dragon and find Mordamir! (He has some explaining to do...)

Statue spell will save you from McNyack

Bonus Belmonts

Start the biggest and most challenging quest for the Count with 10 characters in reserve. Register your name as "HELP ME" and the game will begin with bonus Belmonts! Use "HELP ME" as your name whenever you enter your password and you'll begin each time with the extended number of fighters.

HELP ME helps you with 10 fighters in reserve. It'll take a lot closer to the Count!

From Agent #942

Invisible Man

In the first castle you visit in this epic adventure, Coneria, there's an invisible character that you can talk to for a very simple clue. You'll find him north of the Queen's chamber on the other side of a brick wall. Move your party to the area pictured below and press the A Button to talk. A message will come down, even though there will appear to be no one close by. This is a message from the invisible man. Save the princess and the message will change.

Bonus Coins

Begin your adventure with some spending money by using a simple maneuver. Watch the game's opening story before you begin and press the A Button twice on Controller II when the picture of the village (as shown) appears in the lower-left corner. Then press Start on Controller I and begin with 100 Gold Coins!

Press A on Controller II twice when this village appears in the game story sequence.

Sound And Stage Selects

Two connected codes for this thriller will allow you to listen to the sounds of the game and select levels. Insert the Game Pak and turn on the power. Then, with Controller II, press and hold the A and B Buttons and Up on the Control Pad. Then press Reset on the Control Deck and the message "Sound Test 00" will appear. On Controller I, Press Left and Right to change the number and press the A Button to start the selected sound. When you aren’t listening to game sounds, you can select stages. On Controller II, press B, Up, Up, B, Down, Down, and B again. Another number will appear under the sound selection. Press Left and Right on the Controller II Control Pad to change it and press Start on Controller I to begin play on that selected stage.

Unlimited Boards

One of the greatest features of this wild skateboarding sequel is the two-screen Ramp. This is where the real action begins. Our Agents have found that you can perform tricks for the full 3 minutes without ever running out of Boards by using a simple preliminary move. While your Skater is waiting to begin at the top of the Ramp, move him all of the way to the back. Then, when he scratches his head, press the Start Button twice and the Select Button once. If the unlimited Board code has gone into effect, you'll hear a siren-like sound. If you don't hear the sound, try again. Then get moving. No matter how many times you take a spill, you'll always have 3 Boards left.

Level Select

Warp to the advanced levels of the Skate or Die 2 adventure from any action screen. On Controller II press the Start, A, Select and B Buttons, one at a time, to trigger the Level Select. Then press Right on the Control Pad to warp to the Mall, Left to warp to the Beach, and Up to warp to the Plant. You will want to have some supplies, like a good Board, in the advanced stages. So be sure to skate on the street for a while at the beginning and buy better stuff.

Jump to the Mall, Beach or Plant from anywhere in the adventure.

Change Of Plans

In the Second Level of the Adventure, you'll have a delivery job at the Mall. The subscreen will indicate where you should make your next delivery. If you change the delivery schedule, though, so that the odd numbered deliveries are made to the places shown on the table below, you'll earn a ton of great bonuses. Then make even-numbered deliveries as scheduled.

1st Delivery – Joe's Formal Wear
3rd Delivery – Rhinestone Jewelers
5th Delivery – Wumpus World
7th Delivery – Kafka's Candies
9th Delivery – Stiller's Outpost
11th Delivery – Pathos Fashions

Make a change to your appointed rounds and you'll earn big bonuses. Make even-numbered deliveries as the shopkeepers indicate.

Build Up In A Hurry

It's much quicker to build abilities early in this journey than in advanced stages. When the Game Level rises, the number of experience points needed to gain new strengths also rises. Our Agents have devised a plan to build powers with ease and speed. Individual Passwords are given for your characters and the Game Level. Our Agents recommend that you play until you reach the fifth Game Level and take down the Passwords for your characters. Then re-enter the characters' Passwords and a Password for the first Game Level. When you resume play, the abilities will increase with the same speed that they did when you began the game instead of at the slower rate of advanced Game Levels. Repeat this move as often as you'd like.

Take down character Passwords for advanced levels. Then re-enter them with a low Game Level Password.

Option Select

Set up your game the way you'd like with an option packed mode. While the game is going through the demonstration, Press and hold Up and Left on the Control Pad, and press the Reset Button on the Control Deck. The screen will be blank. Press the A, B and Select Buttons at the same time and the Configuration Mode screen will appear, giving you the option to select the level and difficulty of the game.

Follow a simple procedure to blast into the Thunderbirds Configuration Mode. Enter the first half, and when the screen goes blank, enter the second half.

Choose Level Four, and your entire fleet of Thunderbird ships will be invincible.

DEJÀ VU

Maybe worse things had happened to me, but I couldn't remember them. I couldn't remember anything about who I was, what I was doing in Joe's Bar, or the dead guy was in the secret office upstairs. It didn't help that I had the murder weapon on me and blood on my hands. To the cops, I'd look about as innocent as a fat fox in a chicken coop. Time was running out. I'd have to start finding some answers quick.

There's nothing worse than waking up in a washroom stall, except maybe looking in a mirror and not recognizing your own mug.

Looks like someone was doing some serious gambling here, but this guy must have spilled a drink on Lady Luck.

It's time to get cracking on this case.

Murder is a dirty business and someone's got to clean it up. In Kemco-Seika's mystery thriller, DEJÀ VU, that someone is you. But who are you? That's one of the mysteries you've got to solve. And who killed Joey Siegel? All the evidence leads like a trail of crumbs straight to you! Finding clues to prove your innocence in this PC type game will be like finding stars in Hollywood—you know they're around, but you can't recognize any off the screen. Fans of Shadovgate will catch on quickly to the step-by-step action, but the challenge is to piece together a puzzle, not battle monsters. You're racing against time, the cops, and hidden dangers.
YOUR M.O. IN DÉJÀ VU

COMMANDS

EXAM:
Choose the EXAM command to examine objects that you discover in the game, to read notes and look into things. Examine objects before taking them, because some of the items are a waste of space.

SPEAK:
Although some P.I.s tend to shoot first and ask questions later, in most cases it is better to speak with people rather than shoot them.

HIT:
The natural tendency of an ex-boxer like Ace Harding is to punch things that get in his way. Sometimes it's useful to do this, but most of the time it will just give you a pain in your fist.

CLOSE:
When you've finished with a drawer, book or other item that opens, you can close it again with this command. You'll flip through the notebook faster if you close things.

OPEN:
Be thorough when searching a room and make sure you open desks, books, and other objects. You'll also need to open doors throughout the game, sometimes requiring keys or more forceful methods.

TAKE:
Many of the items you'll encounter are useful to you or will be later in the game. Before you can use one of these items, you'll have to TAKE it. Once you do, it will appear in your notebook.

LEAVE:
After a while you'll discover that certain items just take up space in your notebook. The LEAVE command is used to drop items that you don't need.

USE:
To make use of an object or item, choose the USE command, then point the cursor at the item you want to use. When the game asks what you want to use it on, point to where you will use the item.

MAIN SCREEN

This screen shows a picture of what you see in any given location.

NOTE

This is your Notebook in which you keep track of all your items, money and clues. Examine and use the contents of its pages.

SELF

Some items can be used on yourself—certain medicines, for example. When you're asked where to use an item, choose SELF.

SAVE

Each time you make a major discovery or enter a new area of the game, you should save your progress in a file with the SAVE option.

Making Sense Of It

This review is divided into three basic sections. The Diary presents the various questions in the game that are likely to occur to you, along with vague hints to nudge you in the right direction. The Case History pages answer many of those questions specifically. On the back of the poster is a complete map of Déjà Vu locations and passages!

Diary Of A Gumshoe

At every turn new questions will occur to you, like how do you get cab fare?

The questions are pounding in your skull like an all-night construction job. You won't get any peace until they're answered and your name is cleared of suspicion. If you don't want much help, just read the questions and hints in the Diary to point you in the right direction. If you need help later, turn to the answers in the Case History.

The Case History

Turn to the Case History when you're completely stumped by new developments.

When the trail of clues leads you down a dead end and the future looks about as promising as a condemned ward, turn to the answers in the Case History descriptions. The number of the answer corresponds to the number of the question in the Diary pages, so it's easy to find the one answer that will get you going again.
Diary Of A Gumshoe

"As soon as I saw the stuff on the desk I knew my neck was on the block. But I didn’t feel like a murderer. I figured I’d better keep track of the evidence I found to help clear my name."

WHAT’S GOING ON HERE?

1 Washroom
Who’s That In The Mirror?
I was in a bathroom stall with a head full of misery and an overcoat on a peg. I took the coat, found a gun behind it and took that, too. You never know when a piece might come in handy. I left the stall and got a shock when I looked in the mirror and saw a face I didn’t recognize. Who was it?

2 Joe’s Bar
Who Owns This Joint?
The bar was as steady as a pomegranate and I wondered what a nice guy like me was doing in a place like that. Then I remembered that I didn’t know if I was a nice guy or not. Upstairs I saw a photo—the same face as in the mirror. My head started swimming. It didn’t add up.

3 Siegel’s Office
Murder Most Foul?
Anyway you spelled it, this guy was a dead duck. It looked like he hadn’t paid his phone bill, either. Talk about your disconnections. I found a key in his pocket and another in the desk. There was a wall safe, too, and I wondered what was in it, but I didn’t have the right combination to crack it.

4 Weird Room
Who Got Grilled Here?
It was a weird room all right, like something out of a horror flick. All those piles of drugs and the trays on the chairs sure weren’t used for dancing lessons. I checked the wastebasket, too, found some capsules and put 'em in my pocket. Maybe they were evidence, maybe not. I'd have to find out.

5 Wine Cellar
Another Way Out?
There was so much dust in the wine cellar I could have planted a flag in it and called it the moon. Another dead end, I thought. But then I saw one clean bottle and I knew someone had been here recently. What was so special about that bottle? It hadn’t been opened and if it was a lose year. Strange.

6 Cosina
Can I Win Some Cash Here?
Whoever owned this place had been looking to get rich quick: roulette, crap, slot machines. Was that why the guy upstairs had been rubbed out? There didn’t seem to be any clues here. Still, the slot machine on the right was turned on and I had some coins. Maybe, for once, I’d get lucky. I could use a break.

7 Sewer
Where Does This Lead?
The thought of skulking through the sewers of Chicago had about as much appeal as a holiday at a pig farm, but I had to find a way out to the street and my options were few. As I stumbled through the low tunnels I heard a loud splash behind me. I turned, but nothing was there. I wondered if I’d ever get out.

FRAMED FOR MURDER?

8 The Mercedes
What Can I Find Here?
It was a nice set of wheels. The key I’d found on the dead guy opened the door. I slid in, smelled the fine leather upholstery and thought about taking it for a spin. But first I searched the glove box and found a map, a snapshot, and an address. Maybe if I went for a drive I’d learn something?
On The Street
Who Are These People?
I thought a little fresh air might do me some good, but the locals had something else in mind. There were muggers and bums, and a hard-looking dame who told me a yarn you could knit a set of handcuffs with. It seemed that they all wanted something from me, like I was the Salvation Army.

Siegel's Apartment
Am I Getting Anywhere?
A cab took me to the address I'd found in the newspaper, a posh place on West End. Inside was an elevator with a slot for a key card. The card in my wallet fit and I rode up to Siegel's pad. I didn't know what I was looking for, the payoff? the magazine? Was any of it going to save my skin?

Bungalow At Kedzie
No Way In?
The cab let me out at a rundown bungalow on Kedzie, the kind of place a rat might be proud to call home. The door was locked and nobody answered the door when I pounded on it. Some of my keys seemed to fit, and the windows were barred. Not for the first time did I wonder if I was chasing a wild goose.

Peoria Street
Is This Game Blackmail?
Back at Siegel's office I tried opening the safe with the combinations I'd found at the bungalow. One of them worked! Inside was a box with a key and a folder containing an I.O.U. for a thousand dollars. It had my name on it! I looked at the body and wondered; had I been desperate enough to do this?

Dr. Brody's Office
What Are All These Bottles?
By the time I got into the office, I was in a bad way. Dizzy spells spun my head round like a stick in a whirlpool. The medicine vials meant nothing to me, but I sensed that one of them was the cure. If only I could get into the filing cabinet, I thought, I might find which medicine to take.

Ace Harding's Office
Who's That Behind The Door?
The frosted glass window in the door read Ace Harding, Private Eye. The shadow just behind the door, however, didn't look like Ace Harding. After all, wasn't I Harding? The figure didn't move an inch. What was I going to do? Walk in and say, "Hi, Ace Harding, munter at large. How can I help you?"

Sternwood's Mansion
Is The Final Answer Inside?
I'd come a long way and learned a lot by the time I reached the old estate. Somehow I felt my destiny was tied up in this place. I knocked and a butler answered. When he refused to let me in, I showed him my credentials—a list of nicknames! Updates I found two people asleep. Had they set me up?

The Police Station
Will The Cops Buy My Story?
I'd gathered a pretty convincing case, I thought. But was it air tight? Before heading to the cops I reviewed all the evidence. It was pretty clear I'd been framed, set up like a two-bit chump to take the fall. But how did I know the cops would see it my way? How could I be sure?

CAN I BE CURED?

VOLUME 20 47
The Case History

“Once I’d solved the case, it all seemed as clear as a glass full of water. I wrote down a full account for the cops and the D.A., filling in my diary, which had as many holes as a sieve.”

1. Men’s Washroom
   Take The Coat And Gun
   The coat was a valuable find. In the pocket was a key to Siegel’s office, a card that operated the elevator in the West End apartment building and some quarters for cab fare or gambling. The gun had only three bullets.

   When I looked in the washroom mirror and didn’t recognize myself, I thought that maybe I should have died and gone to a sunny Hollywood version of heaven. But I didn’t know my name, either, not until I saw the photo of Ace Harding in the hallway, and even then I didn’t remember. At this point I didn’t know how deep in trouble I was. It was just a nightmare from which I didn’t know how to wake up.

2. Joe’s Bar
   Gather Clues
   The photo gave me a clue to the identity. Then, in the secretary’s office, I found a bill for some drugs. The Sherman Street address was one place I’d have to check out. The key in my pocket unlocked the inner office door.

   The photo in the hallway was a real kick in the pants. So I was an ex-boxer with no memory. Maybe punch drunk? Back in the bar I’d downed the sobriety test, but it didn’t make me feel any better. The front door was locked and no amount of pounding would open it. Another door led down to a wine cellar. I needed another drink when I came.

3. Siegel’s Office
   Definitely Murder
   Nobody gets that many holes in them from sharpening pencils. No, this guy was down on the street, the Big Sleep, and not by choice. Turns out the key in the desk opened the front door of the bar so I wouldn’t have to crawl around on the floor escape. I took a pencil, too, which was vital later when I got to the St. gasoline place. Siegel had another key in his pocket—this one to the Mercedes out front. Later I found a combination to the safe when I was at the bungalow, but first I wanted to get away from the scene of the crime and think.

4. Weird Room
   Dangerous Drugs
   One sniff of this room told me that whatever had been here before hadn’t been entertaining guests. The chair with the straps could only have been used to tie someone down, probably while forcing them to take the drugs. I took the empty capsules from the wastebasket, which turned out to be a smart move later when I found some useful medicines. I also took note of the empty bottles for future reference, then I got out of there as fast as I could. It seemed pretty likely that the poor sap who’d been dragged in that chair was one.

5. Wine Cellar
   A Secret Door
   It looked like a good place to hide something. It was dark, dusty and as inviting as a crypt. At first I didn’t see anything unusual about the stash of wine, but I looked at all the bottles. When your neck it on the line you learn how to be thorough in hurry. On the right hand side of the rack was a cinder bottle. Interesting, it wouldn’t budge. Even more interesting. So I hit it. "Sock" and the entire rack slid away, revealing a passage. I stepped through it into a secret room with a hole in the floor and a door across the way.
Sewer

Another Way Into The Bar

There were times when I had to get off the street. I figured no one would look for me underground, so I opened up a manhole and climbed down into the plumbing of the city.

I found another way into Joe's Bar from the sewer. It went up into the secret room behind the wine rack.

I also found a deep pool in the lowest part of the sewer—a good place to dump evidence, I thought. Then something found me. An alligator with an attitude! I blasted it in the head. If I'd hesitated I'd have been gator chow.

On The Street

Punks Everywhere

I met Segar Shank near the cop house. She said she'd wired Siegel's car with a bomb—a sort of homecoming present now that she was out of the State Pen. She was a lemon. I ended the conversation with a quick jab.

The manager was a real clown. Three times he accosted me and earned a punch in the nose for his efforts each time. The fourth time, I gave him a twenty because he'd taken the safety off his gun.

He smelled like the inside of a brewery and said he had information he'd sell for 50 cents. It was cheap, but so was the scoop. He told me a hit man was waiting at my office. So what else is new?

The guy at the newsstand looked plenty nervous when he saw me. He said the cops had been sniffing around, looking for me. The paper didn't mention the murder, just something about Pearl Harbor.

Down at the end of Peoria was where the cabs hung out. The guy in the blue cab was nervous and rude. The hook in the yellow cab seemed okay. For seventy-five cents they took me wherever I wanted to go, but I got the feeling that they'd sing to the cops if I held back on the fare. Strangely enough, they wouldn't make change for a twenty.

The Mercedes

More Leads

I used the key I'd found on Siegel to get into the car. The glove box had a map with directions for me to follow and a note about Mrs. Sternwood being in the trunk. There was a photo, too, Mrs. Sternwood I presumed. It looked like I was framed.

There was also a car registration made out to Joey Siegel at 1212 West End St. Either Siegel and I had been partners in crime or someone wanted it to look that way. I'd have to check the address, I thought, and I'd have to check the trunk too. For that, I'd need the key in the wall safe.

Siegel's Apartment

More Photos, More Clues

The cab dropped me at the West End address and I went into the lobby. I tried the key card from my wallet in the elevator slot. It took me straight to Siegel's apartment.

Inside the apartment I found a photo of a dame. On the trunk was an address at Kedzie—not a good neighborhood—but since there was nothing else in Siegel's place, I decided to check it out.

Kedzie Bungalow

Important Developments

The Kedzie place was locked and there was no back way. There was nothing for it but to shout off the lock. Inside, I found two slips of paper with numbers written on them. They looked like the combinations to a safe and I remembered the locked safe in Siegel's office. There was a diary, too, and the entry inside made my heart race. It was practically a stream confession! Alone it might not be enough to clear me, but it seemed as if I was finally getting somewhere. There was also a key—was it to what I didn't yet know.

Peoria Street

Incriminating Evidence

One of the notes in the Kedzie bungalow had the combination to Siegel's safe. Inside was an I.O.U. for $1000. I didn't remember writing it, wouldn't do for the cops to find it.

The key from the safe unlocked the car's trunk. Mrs. Sternwood, all 400 lbs. of her, was inside, unconscious. I fed her some Pentothal and she came to long enough to name an address.
Dr. Brody's Office

Search For A Cure

The key from the desk at the Kadzic address fit the lock to Brody's office, but it didn't open the filing cabinet; that's what I needed to see. By now I was in agonizing from the effects of whatever drug I had been dosed with. Desperate, I shot off the lock. The files made interesting reading.

The effects of all the drugs on the shelf were outlined in the notes. Bloodclambits looked like the antidote. I took three doses by filling the capsules from the Weitz Room and my memory flooded back! Leaving, I pocketed three Pentothal bottles on a hunch.

Sternwood's Mansion

The Final Pieces

After using the knacker at the door, a butler showed up and told me to get lost. I'd come too far for that, though, and made a convincing argument with a left jab that would've floored a rhino.

Inside I checked the kitchen. Nothing. Upstairs I found the Vickers woman in the guest room. There was a blank memo on the nightstand, but I could see indentations from writing. Using the pencil, the words became clear, all too clear—who, where, when and how! Next, in the master bedroom, I found a juicy blackmail note. I had them.

Ace Harding's Office

An Unwelcome Visitor

My office was upstairs from Brody's. Someone was there, I saw a shadow through the pane in the door. The hit man. It was him or me, I decided it was him.

I felt bad about shooting a stranger through a door, but glad to be alive. What I really needed was information, and I got a lot from my files. But one of the files looked like it'd been planted.

The Police Station

Wrapping Up The Case

Now it looked like I had an airtight case. Vickers and Sternwood were behind the whole sordid mess. Three of those pieces of evidence were irrefutable. That was, unless there was an alternate explanation and motive. I remembered the items that were meant to frame me and started worrying all over again. What was to stop Sternwood from saying I was framing him? That evidence had to go.

With all the fake evidence burned or sinking to China, including the murder weapon with my fingerprints on it, I went to the police.

Case Closed!

Take Note!

Any time you're on a case you're going to find lots of evidence and even more red herrings. Keep it all straight by writing it down.

OTHER INFO
All the locations in Déjà Vu are listed on this map as are all the passages and doors that link the locations to each other. Connecting lines mean that two-way travel is possible. An arrow on one end of the line means that you can move only in that direction. There are some extra hints as well.
I knew fate had dealt me a raw hand, but I was determined to make the best of it, or better. In the Casino I took my seven coins and kept playing until I hit the Jackpot. Then I had enough cab fare for most of my investigation, not just one round trip.
Hidden Dangers
I was on the lam, a wanted man with a smoking gun and a memory that went back all of half an hour. I had to rely on instinct alone. For instance, the Construction Site beyond the Police Station looked about as friendly as a war zone, so I stayed clear of it. And in the gunshop, the manager held a loaded shotgun under the counter. I decided I'd better be polite to the guy.

Confessions
I wanted to hear that I was innocent straight from the horse's mouth, or from Sternwood and Vickers at least. I put some Pentothal in the capsules and fed them to the conspirators while they slept. They didn't know it, but they spilled their guts to me about the crime. I had been framed all right, but the tables were about to turn.

8 DIRECTIONAL SCROLLING

This feature is what makes the game feel so smooth. As Gizmo moves in any one of 8 directions, the map is updated, giving the player a better feeling of control.

A GREAT CAST OF ENEMIES

Get ready for some wild and wacky Gremlins with lots of special weapons (like the bow from the movie) that just add to the fun.

IT'S A BIRD . . . IT'S A PLANE . . . IT'S SUPER GIZMO!

As the enemies get tougher, our little friend Gizmo is able to find special items and weapons that make each of the 5 stages seem like a whole new game.
GIZMO’S GONNA STOP US? YOU MUST BE KIDDING!

NO MORE MR. NICE GUY!

Gizmo’s had about all a Mogwai can stand, and he’s not going to take it anymore! Armed with a supply of tomatoes, our hero sets out, determined to teach Mohawk a lesson or two.

SPLAT!

Give them a taste of Gizmo’s special tomato recipe.

HERE ARE A FEW ITEMS YOU CAN FIND ALONG YOUR WAY.

CRYSTAL BALL
Collect these to buy things from Mr. Wing.

“YOU’LL BE ABLE TO KEEP YOUR WEAPONS EVEN AFTER YOU CONTINUE”

GIZMO FINDS BETTER WEAPONS

In the beginning, Gizmo can only throw tomatoes at his enemies. Throwing tomatoes may be a good way to insult someone, but it really isn’t much of a weapon. Fortunately, Gizmo gains a new weapon each time he completes a level.

YEAH!

“THAT RUNT WILL NEVER MAKE IT!”

Now that you’ve had a chance to learn all about Gizmo, just turn the page and we’ll give you a look at some maps that will really get you going on your adventure...

“I HAVE TO MAKE IT! EVERYONE IS COUNTING ON ME!”
Things have gone crazy and all of the creatures in the genetics lab where Gizmo has been kept are loose. Gizmo knows that his only chance is to somehow get through it to Billy's office, but that may be difficult with all these crazed creatures running around. I mean, have you ever been attacked by a giant tomato?

1-1 LEARNING EXPERIENCE

The first stage is fairly simple, so use it to get a feel for how Gizmo moves. Be sure to practice diagonal jumping, as you will need this skill later.

Mr. Wing has five different items that he sells in the Shops. You can only enter each Shop once, and while inside you will have three items to choose from, so choose wisely. This first shop offers a 1-Up, a Balloon, or a Medicine Bottle.

- POWER UP: This item will power up whatever weapon Gizmo is using.
- BALLOON: This will keep Gizmo from falling into a pit.
- MEDICINE BOTTLE: This will add an extra heart to Gizmo's strength.
- 1-UP: Gain an extra life!
- HEART: Use this to restore Gizmo to maximum strength.

ITEM

- POGO STICK
- BAT

THE TOUGHEST ENEMY IN THE 1ST STAGE IS THE GIANT TOMATO

Stand in the safe point at the top right corner and you'll be able to hit them while they can't hit you.
TO BILLY'S OFFICE

1-2 BILLY'S OFFICE IS TOUGHER THAN THE LAB

There are many more traps and pitfalls in this section, and the map is much more complex. Be sure to time your jumps well, and don't forget to visit Mr. Wing's Shop.

STAGE CLEAR!

Since this is only the first stage, there is no boss to fight at the end. Just make it to the exit, and you'll be rewarded with a new weapon: The Match.

"YOU'RE NOT THERE YET, YOU PESKY LITTLE TWERP!"

Avoid the floor spikes by jumping over them or running around them.

MUTANT TOMATOES
They usually move in a straight line, so you can hide in a safe spot and let 'em have it.

BATS
It's hard to predict which way these wacky bats will fly next, so always take them out right away.

NEW ENEMIES IN STAGE 1-2

MUTANT SPIDER
This enemy will split into 2 smaller spiders after you defeat it. Take your time and get them all.

WATCH OUT FOR THE MUTANT SPIDER!
This Spider has a nasty trick in store for you: When you defeat him, he turns into two smaller spiders. Be sure to defeat them before moving on.

1-2 START

VOLUME 20 55
Mohawk and the other Gremlins decide to lock Gizmo up in the Clamp Center air duct system, and now he must find his way out. He manages to make his way into the basement, but finds nothing but more mischievous Gremlins fooling around and blocking his way.

THIS IS STARTING TO GET TOUGH!

Gizmo will find it fairly easy to find his way around in the air duct, but the creatures he encounters here are much more difficult.

NEW ENEMIES IN STAGE 2-1

- Motion-Activated Bombs
  - As soon as you get too close, these bombs will move toward you and explode. If one starts coming for you, move a few steps to the opposite direction, and it will explode harmlessly.

NEW ENEMIES IN STAGE 2-2

- Flying Gremlins
  - Jump up and shoot them before they get a chance to dive-bomb you.
- Fire Gremlin
  - Unless you like the smell of burning fur, jump over his fire shots.
- Jumping Gremlin
  - He'll hop right on top of you if you don't keep moving.
- Skateboard Gremlin
  - Like cool moves, but check the skin, dude. I think you've been out in the sun too long.

"What was that! It looked like some sort of shadow, but who was it? Oh well, I guess I'll find out soon enough."
AND INTO THE BASEMENT

2-2

PLenty of Gremlins down in the basement.

Up until now Gizmo has not seen many other Gremlins, but when he reaches the basement, they seem to be everywhere!

Clobber the Skateboard Gremlin

If you manage to keep your distance, you'll be able to hit him while he can't hit you.

Jumping Gremlin

Run in close and hit him once, then quickly run back to a safe spot. Keep repeating this, and you'll finish him easily.

Fire Gremlin

Keep jumping to avoid his fire shots, and you can move in close to take him out.

Clear the Room First

Be sure to take out all of the pesky Gremlins before you get on this platform. If you hop on first, they will be able to get rid of you easily but knocking you off of it.

Stage 2 Boss

Mohawk

Oh no, it's Mohawk! Come on Gizmo, give him what he's been asking for. The trick is to maneuver behind him and keep shooting. He's really a big coward, and won't be able to take much of that.

VOLUME 20 57
Gizmo finds himself in an unfamiliar part of Clamp Centre and discovers the CATV television studio, and eventually finds himself in the office of Mr. Clamp himself!

INSIDE THE TV STUDIO
The television studio is full of new and dangerous traps and obstacles, as well as several new enemies. Gizmo will have to use all the techniques he has learned to get through this stage.

NEEDLE SHOOTERS!
Gizmo will have to take out the two Needle Shooters here before getting on the platform. If you wait until getting on, the cross fire will get you for sure.

THE DREAEO ROOTS GREMLIN
Wait for him to pop out of the ground and nail him right when he appears. He will always appear in the same place, so surprise him the next time he shows up.

NEW ENEMIES IN STAGE 3-1

- NEEDLE SHOOTER
  Wait for them to shoot, then quickly move into position and blast them.

- GREMLIN HAND
  A mysterious Gremlin hand that seems to come out of nowhere.

- ROOTS GREMLIN
  This Gremlin is stuck in the floor up to his waist and can't move to attack.

- HURRICANE BAT
  A real whirlwind of an enemy!
TELEVISION STUDIO AND OFFICE

3-2 CONVEYOR BELT RIDE TO NOWHERE

This stage is full of tricky conveyor belts and fire floor panels. It will be very important to keep jumping while moving through here.

Some of the conveyor belts are easy, and will help you move quickly... while others will take you right into the fire floors.

Use the left side of this passage—it’s much easier. Always be sure to take out all visible enemies before jumping to the next platform.

NORMAL GREMLIN

This Gremlin has no special tricks, but he’s a mean one, that’s for sure.

THE STAGE LIGHTS SHINE BRIGHT

The timing here is critical. You will have to jump from platform to platform while jumping to avoid the studio lights as well.

A CONVEYOR BELT TO PRACTICE ON

Stop here a while and practice maneuvering on the conveyor belts.

ELECTRIC GREMLIN

Stand up to him, Gizmo. Maneuver only enough to avoid his shots, and keep firing your bow.
The Gramlins have gone nuts, and now Gizmo has to go back to the Genetics Lab and try to stop them before they break out and take over the entire Clamp Centre.

HURRY, GIZMO! THE FATE OF THE CITY IS IN YOUR HANDS
This is the longest stage in the game, but it is very straightforward, and Gizmo should be able to find his way to the end easily.

Without using the diagonal jump, Gizmo doesn't stand a chance.

WHICH WAY IS THE BEST?
The upper passageway may take a little longer, but there are not nearly as many pitfalls or traps, and there is a Shop here as well.

IT LOOKS TOUGH, BUT IT'S NOT
Just keep jumping diagonally and you will get through here easily.

HATS OFF TO GIZMO!
Watch out for the Mad Hat Gremlin that appears here. He will fling his hat at Gizmo, but is vulnerable both just before and just after he throws.
GIZMO'S GREATEST CHALLENGE

This is by far the most difficult stage for Gizmo. There are very clever enemies, more traps, and lots of pitfalls.

STAY ON THE PLATFORM FOR A WHILE

Don't get off of this platform until all of the enemies in this area are defeated. If you try to go on too early, you will be knocked down for sure.

TAKE A LITTLE TIME TO DO THE JOB RIGHT

If you try to rush through this area, you’re done for. Take your time and clear out all enemies before going on.

JUMP ONE EXTRA TIME

The trick here is to jump straight up one extra time on each platform. By doing this, you will be able to escape the hands that try to knock you off the platform.

STAGE 4 BOSS

MACHINE GUN MOHAWK

Mohawk is back, and this time he’s brought the heavy artillery. Just avoid the spikes and get beside him. He is having problems handling the machine gun and can only shoot straight down.
The Gremlins have penetrated the Control Center, and now Gizmo must wage a final battle against the entire, crazed horde.

JUST WHO IS BEHIND ALL OF THIS?
This is the final stage, so we're not able to tell you what you'll find behind the final door. Just be advised that Gizmo is in for a real surprise... And no fair telling your friends if you've seen the movie. They'll just have to find out on their own.

"LET ME GIVE YOU A LITTLE ADVICE"

POINT OF ADVICE

MASTER THE JUMP AND SHOT TECHNIQUE
One of the big secrets in this game is that if you shoot while jumping in the air, your shot will travel farther. (We know this isn't logical, but hey, remember, this is a video game!)

The extra-long, diagonal shot will really help in tight spots.
The super-long jumping shot will allow you to hit enemies without having to jump across the pitfalls.

CAUTION!
The only thing to remember about using the jumping shot is that whenever you shoot while in mid-air, Gizmo will drop straight down, so only do this while standing in a safe place, and never do it when jumping across a pit.
The year begins for Game Boy with an adaptation of Dragon’s Lair like no other, F1 Race, an excellent multi-player race car game, and many more great titles. Read on for reviews of the latest games, tips, rumors and the Game Boy Top 10.
The people wept on the day that Princess Daphne was kidnapped by the Sorcerer Mordroc. At the same time, the magical Life Stone was shattered and its pieces scattered throughout the land. Now it's up to Dirk to collect the fragments and save the day. CSG brings this unique arcade hit to Game Boy with some of the best graphics for Game Boy yet and super challenging action.

Life Stones

To collect a Life Stone, all you have to do is touch it.
The Game World

Every area of the Game World has several pieces of the shattered Life Stone for you to collect. Most are set in hard-to-reach places, but you can’t ignore any of them. Below are hints for some of the more difficult areas.

AREA

A  THE OUTER FOREST
B  TROLL VILLAGE
C  TROLL MINES
D  VALLEY OF THE SPHINX
E  DUNGEONS
F  THE CELLS
G  SLAVE MINES

TOTAL LANDS: 14

AREA

H  TEMPLE RUINS
I  CEMETERY
J  PETRIFIED FOREST
K  CRYPT
M  DESOLATE PEAKS
N  EVIL MOUNTAIN

TOTAL LIFE STONES: 194

---

A. The Outer Forest

Use the spinning platforms and insects to carry Dirk up and from right to left to reach the Stones. Follow the route (letters A through F) and jump into the hole at the far left.

B. Troll Village

Ghosts, insects and a rabbit are going to help you get the tough Stones. In Dragon’s Lair, creatures almost always carry Dirk.

C. Troll Mines

Drop down onto a ghost’s shoulder and jump up to the Stones. You can jump on the large spikes, but only for a short time.

D. Valley Of The Sphinx

From the branches of the tree on the left, step out onto the hat. It carries you up to position A. Then jump down to the spinning wheel, for the second Stone. Now run quickly to the left, back to the hat as it starts to swing down to the right. When you swing around, hop over to the cloud for the final Life Stone.

E. Dungeons

The insects fly in a formation that will take you to the two right-hand Stones. Jump to the left.

F. The Cells

Don’t get caught in Montrez’s prison Cells! Here you’ll ride rotating skulls and bars.

J. Petrified Forest

Reach the upper platform by climbing the stump on the screen to the right. Don’t heed the signs.

K. The Crypt

Ride the skeletons and the rolling ball or you shall surely perish!

L. Lake Of The Dead

The rails are all right, but make no bones about it, the skulls are the way to travel.

M & N. Evil Mountain

After the Lake of the Dead you’ll find a raven waiting in a cave. Hop on his back for a ride to Evil Mountain and the greatest challenges.
Welcome To A Nightmare

Evil has spread throughout the land and now the Shogun needs four warriors to restore peace. Mercenary Force by Meldac puts you in command of that mission. The Fighting Formations open up a new world of battle strategies.

Heroes & Hidden Powers

The team can consist of any combination. Use Transform only as a last resort.

SERVANT  MONK  MYSTIC  NINJA  SAMURAI

THUNDER  TIME  LIFE  WIND  FIRE

Round 1

Use a balanced team (two Ninjas loading) and keep near the right edge of the screen. Fire rapidly!

SEKIS

Always fill up all warriors to 30 points with Sushi, Medicine Tea.

A Ven For Ven

Start with 30,000 Yen instead of only 5,000 by pushing Up, Select, A and B at the same time when the title screen is up!

Centipede

Use the Fire Formation and aim for its head. Fill up on tea afterwards.

Manfish

Use either the Wind or Fire Formations when attacking this mixed-up fish with a human face.

Sky Dragon

Dodge up and down to avoid the Dragon's fire. Use the Fire Formation and aim at its head.

FORMATIONS

Use four fighting formations as terrain and conditions change.

Formation Of Wind

The best formation. Put straight shooting fighters in front.

Formation Of Forest

A safe formation, but with a narrow attack focus.

Formation Of Fire

For tight places or concentrating your fire on one small target, such as a foe's head.

Formation Of Mountain

Only use in open areas against weak frontal attacks.
Burai Fighter from Taxan means intergalactic shoot-em-up action. Fans of the NES hit will love this Game Boy version. Your Fighter has super control, lots of weapons, Power-Ups, Cobalt Bombs and a steady stream of alien foes to use them on. There are secret rooms, continue passwords, and both vertical and horizontal scrolling. What more is there?

Up To Speed?

- EAGLE
- ALBATROSS
- ACE

Three difficulty levels suit beginners and aces what they want.

WEAPONS

A wealth of weapons is all that stands between you and a failed mission. Get four of any type of Weapon Capsule for multi-directional fire!

- LASER
  The Laser is your basic weapon, but with four Lasers Capsules you can shoot in two directions at once.

- RING
  The Ring fires a ring of high energy, making fast approaching enemies easier to hit.

- MISSILES
  Make sure you have some Missiles when you battle the powerful aliens at the end of each stage.

ITEMS

- Cobalt Bombs
  Look for special weapons to give you the edge over alien swarms.

- POT
  Cobalt Bombs explode every enemy close-by.

- BOSS
  An energy capsule that circles you, zapping nearby foes.

Collect as many Power-Up capsules from defeated enemies as you can. If the meter on the bottom left reaches 8 bars, you'll get a 1-Up! Midway through Stage 1 you might earn a chance for extra capsules.
F-1 RACE

© 1990 Nintendo

Racers, start your engines and roar into the high speed world of F-1 Race. Downshift through the turns and nitro your way through 12 different countries in the first four-player Game Boy game from Nintendo. Pick car 1A for light and easy control or car 2B for blast away high speed. But whatever the car, make sure you use your nitro wisely!

Time Trials Are The Best Place To Practice

Learn the layout of each course to discover which car is best suited for each track. Then practice your cornering techniques for blazing lap times.

Multi-Racing Fun

With the four-player adapter, you can now enjoy four times the racing fun. Select the car that is right for you and get ready to win!

Grand Prix: Go For The Ultimate Racing Test

Get set for some high-speed action in the Grand Prix of racing.

Follow the Grand Prix circuit around the world and test your driving skills against the World's best. You'll always start in last, so watch the lap counter and work your way through the competition.

Tips To Win It All

Get the inside track on your competition with these great driving tips.

1. Put your wheels on the inside corner of the turn for maximum speed.
2. To pass quickly and safely, move to the outside of the turn.
3. Use nitro on the straights, but take corners for peak performance.

Milton Bradley brings one of America's favorite board games to new heights in Super Scrabble for Game Boy. Play with or without the Game Link for 2-player fun!

Game Symbols
- Land your letters on these special squares to double or triple your score. The center of the board is a double word score square.
- Double Word Score
- Triple Word Score
- Double Letter Score
- Triple Letter Score

Choose Your Mode!
- Challenge the computer, a friend, or time yourself. Use the Game Link cable or pass the game to your friend between plays in a two-player game.

One-Player Game
- Play against a strong computer opponent for a real challenge!
- Set the computer's handicap by limiting its "thinking" time.
- Choose a tile to see who will get the first play.
- The computer picks a lower letter and the player goes first.
- Choose seven tiles from the screen and prepare to spell.
- Maximize your score by placing tiles on bonus squares.
- The game verifies your word and adds up your score.

Solitaire
- Set your own handicap. Spell as many words as you can before your time expires.

To Link Or Not To Link... That Is The Question!
- Milton Bradley's Super Scrabble allows two players to play against each other with or without a Game Link cable. Great idea, guys!
- Without the Game Link, the screen pauses to hide your tiles from opponent.
- With a Game Link cable, you can see your tiles at all times. Plot your move and score big!

Build, Dump, or Zoom
- Use your letters or dump them. Zoom in to see your choices.

Accept or Challenge
- If your word isn't one of 40,000 in the game's memory, it'll let you know.
- You can challenge your friend's spelling.
- If you're wrong, you lose a turn.

Keep Track Of Letters
- Press Start to see how many tiles there are. Check the board to count the remaining tiles.

Lose Those Tiles
- Your remaining tiles will count against you at the end of the game. Try to use as many of them as you can!

DAEDALIAN OPUS™

Stage Select

Since the stages of this super puzzler increase in difficulty as you progress, you probably won't be able to solve the advanced puzzles until you find solutions for the beginner puzzles. With this in mind, you can at least take a look at the challenges that await you with a simple Stage Select. Just enter the word "ZEAL" as your password and the "Puzzle All List" will appear, giving you the chance to land on any of the 36 different Puzzle Islands. The most advanced puzzle includes 13 pieces to be fit into a square frame. Practice with the lower level puzzles first and then give it a try!

TENEMESIS™

FROM AGENT #414
Bonus Stages

Our Agents have come across two mysterious entries to bonus-filled stages in this space thriller. Entering the stages is just a matter of being in the right place at the right time. Just after you defeat the second big Starship of Stage Two, blast the volcano on the ceiling and fly up very close to where it was. You'll immediately be sent to an area loaded with Bonus Capsules. In Stage Four, defeat the skull-like Re-Bone which moves through the third shaft, and fly to the bottom of the screen. There, you'll find the entrance to another Bonus Stage.

GARGOYLE'S QUEST

How do I enter the Warp after conquering the Tower?

Just beyond the Tower, on the second stage of this challenging quest, a creature blocks your path to the Warp. The creature will not let you pass unless you have the Candle of the Poltergeist. Return to the town in the south and find Jark. Choose the "Use" command and your character will use the Gremlin Stick on Jark. This will persuade him to give you the Candle of the Poltergeist. Then go back to the character beyond the Tower. He will see that you have all that you need to move on, and he'll step aside, allowing you to continue your journey.

COMING SOON

Two great new titles that you’ll no doubt read about at length soon are Gremlins 2 and Operation C. Gremlins 2 from Sunsoft is completely different from the now available NES game. Ultra’s Operation C is a pulse-quickening combat action game in the tradition of Super C. The hot new soccer title from Nintendo, Nintendo World Cup, is in the works for Game Boy. Another Game Boy title from Nintendo that is still in the planning stages is a tank battle featuring super cool 3-D perspective graphics. Konami has plans for a Game Boy version of Double Dribble. Kero-Bea is working on a fantasy role playing game with a cat as the main character. In other role playing news, FCl has plans to release Ultima for Game Boy and there’s already a sequel to Square’s Final Fantasy Legend in the works for the Japanese Game Boy. There’s no info on a possible American version at the moment.

LET'S LAND ON THE CLOSEST PLANET. I BET IT'S FILLED WITH ALIEN ARTIFACTS THAT A SOLAR JETMAN LIKE ME COULD SELL FOR A FORTUNE BACK HOME.

THAT PLANET LOOKS FAMILIAR, LIKE THE ONE WHERE I LOST MY FAVORITE GOLDEN BOW TIE.

CRUNCH

ROAR

REMEMBER THAT THE GRAVITY WILL PULL YOU TOWARD THE ROCKS. AND DON'T USE YOUR BOOSTERS UNLESS IT'S NECESSARY, AND DON'T TAKE ANY RADIOACTIVE TREASURES FROM TALL GREEN STRANGERS.

YEAH, YEAH, JUST POINT ME TOWARD THE TREASURE AND STAND BACK!

BROOCH!

THIS POD HAS AWESOME CONTROL! SO WHERE ARE ALL THESE KILLER ALIENS YOU WARNED ME ABOUT?

RIGHT BEHIND YOU!
Hey, would you mind waking up, Howard! I don't want to trash these guys, but they're really asking for it.

Go to emergency evasive maneuvers! Now throw all your multi-warhead missiles at the aliens! When there's a swarm of enemies, the missiles keepcircling around you blowing up everything except your pod.

Good work, you got all of them. Whatever they were guarding must be fantastically valuable. I'm going in to get it now.

Eat missile, space scum toasted!

Ouch!

Zap!

Kerpaw!

Awwright!

Blam!

Eat missile, space scum toasted!

For aliens, I think they have an excellent taste!
Introducing The Miracle System

Is It A Miracle?

Even if you aren’t a piano virtuoso, chances are you can play Mary Had A Little Lamb. But how would you like to really learn to play the piano, and have fun at the same time? The Miracle Keyboard not only provides the lessons, but it also adds other fun options, including orchestral accompaniment that will make your “Little Lamb” sound grand!

How does it work?

Through a series of software-based lessons, the Miracle will teach you the fundamentals of playing the piano. During a lesson, The Miracle System’s software constantly monitors your progress, providing feedback and helping you to hone your skills. The Miracle System even makes practice fun, with several different drills and game-style exercises.

What’s Included?

You may be wondering what you get with this miracle package? The Miracle System consists of a musical keyboard, a Miracle cable which allows it to interface with the NES, and a special Game Pak containing the Miracle’s lessons. With the Miracle System and your NES, you’ll be ready to start learning to play immediately.

Where can I get one?

Availability of The Miracle System was limited to the Chicago and New York markets before the winter holiday season, but it will be available nationwide by early this year.
But what makes the system a miracle are the lessons:

Tons of Tones

In the lessons, you'll be using the basic Grand Piano sound. However, the Miracle Keyboard has 128 other instrument sounds (called patches by musicians) that are fun to play around with, including:

- 12-String Guitar
- Banjo
- Bassoon
- Big Bells
- Breathy Flute
- Chorus Guitar
- Church Bells
- Clarinet
- Cup Mute Trumpet
- Detuned Harp
- Detuned Piano
- Digital Waves

A Sample Lesson On The Miracle System

The Miracle Piano Teaching System's course of study includes 36 sessions. Players with some experience can use the Miracle System to brush up on their skills and skip to advanced lessons, but if you've never played, start at the beginning. Whatever your skill level, the Miracle will listen to your playing and give you the exercises you need to improve.

1. The introductory screen tells you what you'll cover in the section, making it easy to find the topic you want to study or practice.

2. When you first encounter a piece, the Miracle System will demonstrate it so you'll know what it's supposed to sound like.

3. Then it's your turn. At first, there's no metronome, or beat, so you can focus on fingering. What you play is displayed on the screen.

4. Play the piece repeatedly until you get it right. If you're stuck, you can go back or skip ahead, but be sure to master every section.

5. In the Shooting Gallery game, the ducks cross the screen on the lines and spaces of a musical staff. Hit the correct piano key to zap them.

6. You'll work on a single piece of music in each section. The later sections of a lesson will teach you to play the piece accurately and in time.

7. In this rhythm game, tap the keys to the beat to keep Roboman from taking a dive.

8. Playing along with the Toolworks Orchestra makes even basic tunes sound impressive. It's fun!

9. You can practice any piece in the Practice Room. Repeat a section to master it.
The Practice Room

The old saying “Practice Makes Perfect” applies more to learning a musical instrument than any other activity (except possibly mastering video games). Using the Miracle System’s Practice Room to go over difficult pieces is easier and more fun than repeating them in the lessons. There are many options available, and you can decide what you want to practice and how.

Topics Covered

It is estimated that the average person should be able to master the Miracle System’s lessons in 6 to 12 months, gaining basic piano playing skills.

1. Basics: finding keys, metronome
2. Names and locations of keys
3. Sharps and Flats
4. Rhythm, Eighth Notes
5. Reading Music
6. Treble Staff
7. Hand Positions
8. Reading Flats & Sharps
9. Sixteenth Notes
10. Staccato Rhythm
11. Bass Staff
12. Bass Clef Sharps and Flats
13. Key Signatures
14. Measures and Bar Lines
15. Ledger Lines—Treble Staff
16. Ledger Lines—Bass Staff, Chords
17. Imitative Rhythms
18. More Imitative Rhythms
19. Playing With Two Hands
20. Time Signatures
21. Quarter Note Rests
22. More Symbols
23. Eighth Notes and Chords
24. Eighth Rests
25. Time Signature Review
26. Tied and Dotted Notes, Syncopation
27. 2/4 Time, Staccato Attack
28. Practice & Review
29. Triplets, Eighths, Finger Exercises
30. Review, Hound Dog
31. Broken Octaves, Sixteenth Notes
32. Using the Pedal
33. Review, My Funny Valentine
34. 6/8 Time, Star Wars Theme
35. More Syncopation, La Bamba
36. Chords, Dotted Eighth Notes and Syncopation

What’s Next?

After gaining some basic mastery of the piano from the Miracle System, you can take it further by learning from a private instructor or by practicing on your own. The Software Toolworks plans to produce additional software for the Miracle System, including a Game Pak that allows you to create your own music. Sounds great!
COUNSELORS' CORNER!

DESTINY OF AN EMPEROR

HOW DO I CROSS THE WATER IN THE CAVE BEHIND QING ZHOU CASTLE?

After you've taken the fortresses near Qing Zhou Castle by force, the defeated troops will flee to the castle and regroup in great numbers. Since you aren't strong enough to take the castle from the front entrance, you'll want to try a different approach. A cave opening appears behind the castle at the same time the troops flee there. Inside the cave, you'll find an uncrossable body of water and a bridge builder who has allegiance to Han Zhuang. You'll find Han Zhuang in the general area around the castle. Defeat his army and convert him to your side. Then promote him to the lead position in your party and have him talk to the bridge builder. The bridge will appear instantly and you will have a new route to the castle. Fight the weak rear forces and you'll easily take the castle, eventually inheriting the throne.

DESTINY OF AN EMPEROR

WHERE IS THE GEMSWORD?

To get the Gemsword, you'll need the Gold Key. Search for the Gold Key in the fourth level of the cave between Fan Shui Guan and Hu Lao Guan. Then go to Wang Yun's home in Luo Yang Castle. Use the Gold Key while standing on the mark in the room. The Gemsword will appear there.
How do I give the Gemsword to Lu Bu and where is Chi Tu Ma?

Lu Bu and his allies guard Yang Zhou Castle. Storm the castle and defeat the allies, but leave Lu Bu and his army alone. Then offer the Gemsword to Lu Bu by using the Item Command for the character who carries the Sword. If Lu Bu does not accept the Sword, offer it to him again. If Lu Bu still does not accept the Sword after 4 or 5 offers, fight his army and cut it down to half of its original size. He should accept the Sword after your show of force.

After Lu Bu takes the Sword, he’ll give you a clue about the location of the horse, Chi Tu Ma. He’ll say that the horse is 8 yards west and 1 yard south of Fan Shui Quan Fortress. You’ll have to leave the fortress completely in order to follow his instructions. When you go through the first gate, the screen will change and another gate will appear. Go through this gate and move due south 1 step and due west 8 steps by walking around a large rock. Then check the area where you stand and you’ll find Chi Tu Ma. Eventually, you’ll find a General who will be able to ride this gifted horse with speed and agility.

Dungeon Magic

What magic should I start with and what do I use to get to the Legendary Temple?

Start your game by Baptizing with Water Magic. Water Magic offers the most protection from frontal attacks. Use the Spells represented by double horizontal lines and you will be able to cover a lot of territory from the very beginning and not be affected by attacks from weak enemies. By searching the land, you’ll be able to find the swords and learn the magic that is associated with each sword.

When you learn Earth Magic, you’ll be able to get to the water covered Legendary Temple. Stand at the edge of the water and use the Break Water Spell, which is represented by two sets of horizontal lines. The water will part and allow you to blaze a trail to the Temple, where you will find the Book of Runes.

CRYSTALIS WHERE IS THE FLUTE OF LIME?

The Flute of Lime has the power to break people free from a statue-like state. You'll get it from the Queen in the village of Portoa after you have accomplished a few tasks. When you reach the village, enter the castle and speak to the Queen. She'll give you no valuable information. Leave the Queen and talk to the Fortune Teller. Then return to the Queen. Again, she will offer nothing new. As you leave her castle this time, turn around when you are outside and re-enter. When you are just inside the castle, take one step to the left and freeze the guard who stands just outside of the Queen's chamber with Paralysis. If you don't freeze him, he'll step over to the door and block you from entering the chamber. When you enter the Queen's chamber this time, the Queen and her chamber guard will be gone. Enter a cave through the back door of the chamber, then return to the chamber again. Leave the castle once more and return to the Fortune Teller. Finally, go back to the Queen. She'll reward you with the Flute of Lime. Once you have the Flute, you'll bring the statues in the cave behind the waterfall back to life.

CRYSTALIS HOW DO I DEFEAT THE EMPEROR?

You'll find the evil Emperor Draygona in two different places. The first place that you should confront him is the second level of the Pyramid, east of Sahara. Make sure that your character is built to at least Level 16 Experience and use the Sword of Thunder and Storm Bracelet to defeat him. You should also have the Power Ring for extra strength. After you defeat him, you'll receive the Psycho Armor and the Bow of Truth. Your second battle with Draygona will take place in the underground cave, north of the Pyramid. Use the Bow of Truth against him and he'll reveal his true identity. Then equip your character with the same weapons that you used against him the first time and release the power of the Storm Bracelet when the Emperor fires Laser Beams.

After you defeat the Emperor for the second time, you will be transported to the Tower. Use the Warrior Ring to rapidly fire upon the enemies of the Tower. When you've defeated enough enemies, the screen will flash and an escalator will appear to take you to the next Tower level. Eventually, you'll meet with Asina and earn the mighty Sword, Crystalis.
Dungeon Magic

How do I Get the Sword of Fire?

The Sword of Fire is encased in ice in the forest northwest of Gran. With Fairy Magic, use the Thunder Spell (a single dash) and the ice will melt. Then take the Sword to the Fire of Serpents. It will glow and energize, giving you the ability to Baptize in a town with the Fire Magic.

Break the ice with the Thunder Spell and go to the Fire of Serpents.

Swords and Serpents

How do I Escape the South Half of Level 10?

Double doors separate the north and south in Level 10. The doors will not open from the southern side unless you touch the panels on either side of the doors in a particular order. There's a clue that says "Back and Forth, Forth and Back" and the panels give the messages "Back" and "Forth" when you touch them.

Double doors separate the north and south in Level 10. The doors will not open from the southern side unless you touch the panels on either side of the doors in a particular order. There's a clue that says "Back and Forth, Forth and Back" and the panels give the messages "Back" and "Forth" when you touch them.

Touch the "Back" panel first. Then touch the "Forth" panel, step away and touch it again. Finally touch the "Forth" panel once more and the doors will open.

Swords and Serpents

Where is the Ruby Sword?

Level 11 is known as "The Sword" because the walls are shaped in Sword-like patterns. Make your way to the inside tip of this Sword and take 7 right turns. The Ruby Sword will magically appear. Equip a fighter with the Sword and continue your quest for other Ruby items.

Venture to the tip of the Sword.

After 7 right turns, you'll find the Ruby Sword.

I'm waiting for your letters.

OFFICIAL CONTEST RULES
(No Purchase Necessary)

To enter, just fill out the Player's Poll response card or print your name, address and telephone number on a plain, 3X5 piece of paper. Mail your entry to:

NINTENDO POWER PLAYER'S POLL
P.O. BOX 97062
Redmond, WA 98073-9762

One entry per person, please. All entries must be postmarked no later than February 1, 1991. Not responsible for lost, stolen, or misdirected mail.

On or about February 15, 1991, winners will be selected in a random drawing from among all eligible entries. Winners will be notified by mail. By acceptance of their prizes, winners consent to the use of their names, photographs, or other likenesses for the purpose of advertising or promotion on behalf of "Nintendo Power" magazine,
Nintendo of America Inc. and VALIANT without further compensation. Chances of winning are determined by the number of entries received. Limit one prize per household. No substitution of prizes is permitted. All prizes will be awarded. A list of winners will be available after February 15, 1991 by sending a self-addressed, stamped evelope to the address listed above.

BECOME A NINTENDO COMIC BOOK
CHARACTER: Nintendo will arrange for the winner to appear as a character in one issue of a VALIANT comic book. Actual title, story circumstances and publication date to be determined by Voyager and Nintdendo. Any winner under the age of 14 must provide written parental consent and release. Some restrictions apply.

A portion of the proceeds from the sale of this special VALIANT comic book will be donated to RIF (Reading is Fundamental).
Contest open to employees of Nintdendo of America Inc., their affiliates, agencies or their immediate families.

This contest void in Canada and elsewhere where prohibited by law. This contest is subject to all federal, state and local laws and regulations.
Here's a glance at some recent releases that didn't score feature coverage but may appeal to some players.

CONQUEST OF THE CRYSTAL PALACE

This game combines sword swinging action with a quest for special items. A young hero must conquer great obstacles and enemies to save the Crystal Princess from an evil king. He can purchase healing herbs and many powerful weapons.

With a special whistle, he can call upon a helpful fighting dog which assists in the battle much the same way the falcon in 8 Eyes contributes to the fight.

JACKIE CHAN'S ACTION KUNG FU

The greatest feature of this martial arts adventure with Kung Fu specialist Jackie Chan is the size and movement of the main character. He can jump, kick in the air, flip backwards and land on his feet every time.

The Play Control is smooth and the action is very quick. If you're a fan of action-packed fighting games with good graphics and characters on the humorous side, this is one that you'll enjoy.

SILVER SURFER

The mighty Marvel Comics character, the Silver Surfer, makes his way to the NES with a fun and challenging action game.

Take on six challenging stages in any order and blaze through to confrontations with the Silver Surfer's most powerful super villain foes.

In some stages, the action is shown from overhead, and in some, the view is from the side. Since the hero can be defeated with one stray hit at the beginning, the game can be frustrating. He does grow stronger as you play, though.
THE ADVENTURE OF RAD GRAVITY

Space adventurer Rad Gravity is on a planet-hopping mission to destroy an evil super computer. Join in on the action for another fun jumping and shooting game for the NES.

WEREWOLF

The action is fast and furious in this comic book like monster thriller. Face off with enemies in human form to earn the ability to transform into a power-packed Werewolf.

ARCH RIVALS

Straight from the arcades to your NES, Arch Rivals is a not-so-serious look at on-the-court action. There's no need to follow the rules in this basketball game because there are no rules!

LISTING KEY

You can get the most out of our new game listing by understanding the categories. Title, Company and Game Type are self explanatory. Use this Key to understand Play Info and the valuable Power Meter ratings.

PLAY INFO

Games are made to be played with from one to four players. Some also employ a battery or password to save game play data.

- 1P = ONE PLAYER
- 2P-A = TWO PLAYER ALTERNATING
- 2P-S = TWO PLAYER SIMULTANEOUS
- PASS = PASSWORD
- BATT = BATTERY

POWER METER

The Pros at Nintendo headquarters rate each new game. Ratings are from 1 (poor) to 5 (excellent) in four different categories:

- G = GRAPHICS AND SOUND
- P = PLAY CONTROL
- C = CHALLENGE
- T = THEME AND FUN
Here they are, the hottest scores around! If you'd like to share your best scores with the readers of Nintendo Power, send them in! You could be the next NES Achiever!

CAPTURE YOUR ACHIEVEMENTS

Do you ever wonder how you stack up against other NES players on your favorite games? You can check it out right here in every issue. We'll print all the outstanding scores we receive from our readers. Would you like to see your score in the next issue?

First, we need evidence of your great achievement, so be sure to capture it on film. For best results, use a 35 millimeter camera, turn off all of the lights in the room (make it nice and dark), and don't use a flash. Take a couple of shots, and send us the best one.

Some days do you just know you are going to be hot? Well, when you get that "ain't no stopping me" feeling, follow the Boy Scout motto and "Be Prepared." Get out the camera and make sure there's film in it, so you don't miss a golden opportunity to document your potentially record breaking accomplishment.

We want to hear from as many of you as possible. So, warm up your thumbs, crack your knuckles, rub the sleep out of your eyeballs and get ready to score! Mail your photo, along with a note listing the game, your score, your name and address, to:

NINTENDO POWER NES ACHIEVERS

P.O. Box 97033
Redmond, WA 98073-9733

---

TAKE YOUR BEST GAME BOY SHOT!!

1. Place the camera on something steady; a table is ideal.
2. Securely prop up your Game Boy at camera height.
3. Adjust the camera or your Game Boy until there is no reflection on the screen.
4. Don't use a flash.
5. Keep the shutter open for about 2 seconds.
6. Take several shots, and send us your best one.

Good Luck, and we hope to hear from you soon!
Super Mario Bros. 3 still controls the number one slot, but Final Fantasy is gaining as more and more players discover its mystery and challenge. And talk about gaining, Crystalis makes a very impressive move. Rated high by pros and players alike, it shot from 11th to 3rd in this month’s Top 30.

Super Mario Bros. 3 is listed for the fourth time. SMB 3 continues to fascinate players of all ages. It must be the Mario magic! Final Fantasy has caught on like wildfire with players and is bound to become even hotter. Parties everywhere are preparing to seek the crystal orbs! Crystalis doesn’t take a crystal ball to see this game’s future. First a hit with the pros, it has caught on big with players too.
MEGA MAN II
Watch out, Wily! Mega Man has lots of support from loyal fans. He’s holding his own among the top-rated games.

TEENAGE MUTANT NINJA TURTLES
These madcap mutants hold on to fifth place this month, a very respectable showing for four teens from the sewer.

THE LEGEND OF ZELDA
Players continue to find Link valiant and Ganon vile. Whether it is their first trips through Hyrule or fiftieth, it’s still exciting.

TETRIS
Tetris is holding steady at number seven—and holding players enrapt!

SUPER MARIO BROS. 2
After 12 appearances in the Top 30, SMB 2 still pulls in the votes.

DRAGON WARRIOR II
An eagerly awaited sequel, it features many new characters related to those in Dragon Warrior.

BACK TO THE FUTURE
According to the poll, lots of players fire up the DeLorean and McFly to the fifties with Marty.

NEW ADVENTURES JOIN LONG-TIME FAVORITES

Final Fantasy, Ninja Gaiden II hit it big with players, but SMB 3 and TMNT are still running strong.

PROS PICK RPGs, ACTION AND ADVENTURE

Role playing games dominate the pros’ list; 4-player action jumps into the picture with NES Play Action Football. Will they pause for the Super Bowl?

DEALERS SAY MARIO AND LUIGI RULE!

SMB 3 still tops the dealers’ list; SMB 2 ranks in their top ten. They know what players want!
What do Danny, Donnie, Jordan, Jon, Joey and Howard have in common? Their love of the NES and Game Boy, of course. That's what they discovered when Nintendo Power got together to "talk Nintendo" with the New Kids on the Block backstage before their Seattle performance.

With his own hectic travel schedule, Howard could really relate to their stories about how much they enjoyed playing on the road. "Game Boy really saved us in Europe," commented Danny Wood. With all the time they have on their hands while travelling, one of their favorite activities is playing Nintendo Games. They actually have TVs and NES Systems on their tour buses, complete with satellite dishes. When determining who rides where, video game skills are often the deciding factor. Joey, Danny, and Donnie are reportedly the biggest Nintendo fans, while Jordan and Jon watch a lot of videos.

Their gaming preferences lean towards sports titles like Tecmo Bowl and Nintendo Ice Hockey. They've played Super Spike V'Ball and were psyched about trying it out with the NES Satellite we brought them, along with some other new titles like Mega Man III, Final Fantasy, and Dr. Mario.

"They don't do anything unless we okay it."

Donnie Wahlburg and Danny Wood

The plot challenges you to travel around the world to prove that you're the world's biggest fan, and, ultimately, to win a chance to perform onstage with the New Kids themselves. The 6-level game is being developed by Absolute (Simpson's, A Boy and His Blob), and should carry some of their trademark feel. For example, your "weapons" for fending off a gang of "New Kids haters" come in the form of cassette tapes which play pieces of the group's songs. When you play the "Hangin' Tough" tape, you'll have a more powerful impact on the action than you will with a ballad, which might slow the on-screen action. Clues to finding the New Kids come in the form of items their fans will recognize. Donnie rides a motorcycle in one stage, while Jonathan's dog helps out in another. Have they actually been consulted about the product? "They don't do anything unless we okay it," was the immediate response from both Danny and Donnie. They're serious about making sure the game meets their own playing standards.

Donnie Wahlburg, a confirmed Nintendo maniac, really appreciated the chance to get some tips from the Game Master in person. His biggest frustration was that he kept getting stuck on Lode Runner, and Howard promised to send him a map to work it through. "We got to get together and talk Nintendo sometime," said Donnie as he was pulled away to get ready for the show.

Who knows what else he and Howard might have in common?
In this issue's Pak Watch, we're focusing on some games that we mentioned before, but that are now nearing completion. Great graphics and fun themes abound!
By the time you read this, we'll have seen tons of new stuff at the Winter CES. As usual, we'll have a full report soon.

G.I. JOE

Get set for the final battle with the world's greatest menace—Cobra! Those "Real American Heroes," the G.I. Joes, are coming to the NES from Taxan. In this multi-mission action Game Pak, you are chosen by the leader of the Joes to head a hand-picked three man strike force. Select your squad of Joes from a pool of elite soldiers: Duke, Blizzard, Snake Eyes, Captain Grid-Iron or Rock & Roll. Each member of the Joe team has his own weapons and special abilities, so pick your squad members carefully! You and your men will journey through jungles crawling with Cobra's goons, use your demolition skills to destroy an underground Cobra hideout, and more!
Game play is displayed with a side view scroll, with vertical and horizontal movement in some missions. You don't have to be a G.I. Joe fan to play the video game.

G.I. Joe has more than just graphic similarities to another Taxan action title, Low-G-Man, as the Joes can capture enemy vehicles and use them. "Yo, Joe!!"
The forecast calls for action with Metal Storm. In this side-scrolling action shoot-em-up game from Irem, you take control of a powerful "M-308 Gunner" robot as it blasts its way through an enemy base in deep space. Get ready for some wild action!

KILLER CHALLENGE

You'll need all the help you can get to make it through this single hit from an enemy can destroy you if you're not careful. The challenge level perplexed even the best Power Players among our Pak Watchers. A password feature lets you continue where you left off.

SUPER GRAPHICS

Graphically, Metal Storm uses some tricky programming to create interesting images. The double level background scrolling gives the game a three dimensional look, and the character animation is hot. The stage leaders are big and reminded us of the enemies in R-Type. This one might take the NES world by storm.

AWESOME ARSENAL

Like other NES action heroes, the robot protagonist of Metal Storm will come upon special weapons as he fights. Armed with such powerful destructive devices as the bullet deflecting Shield Force, the Laser Gun Power Beam and the Metamorphosing Gravity Fireball, you'll be ready for any attack.

REVERSE GRAVITY

Included in the M-308's arsenal is the ability to reverse gravity and travel along the ceiling of the space ship, which adds some fun, new, game play possibilities. This puzzle aspect of Metal Storm makes it more than just a straight action game.
FROM KONAMI/ULTRA

Coming from Ultra is the rock 'em sock 'em robot baseball game Base Wars. Although it's played on a diamond with the tools of a baseball game, some of the rules have been changed in its futuristic setting. If the play at a base isn't a force out, the robot runner and baseman 'borg battle it out for possession of the bag. Even your superhuman diamond 'droids can only take a certain amount of punishment before they hit the junk pile, but you can fix up your players between games. If you enjoyed the arcade smash Cyberball, you should enjoy Base Wars.

Konami/Ultra include Helicopter, a simulator designed especially for use with the Laser Scope Voice Command Stereo Headset. This flying game will also be compatible with a standard controller. Bill Elliott's NASCAR Challenge is also nearing completion, as is a NES version of the personal computer classic, Pirates!

MONOPOLY

Everyone loves the classic board game, Monopoly. Over 100 million Monopoly sets have been sold since the game was invented in 1935. Now Monopoly is coming to your NES from Parker Bros. NES Monopoly offers many advantages over the board game. Now, you don't have to worry about counting the money, keeping track of deeds, or watching to make sure renters who land on your property pay up. The game goes a lot quicker! No more secretly hoarding cash—everything is up front. The computer instantly calculates all transactions, making mortgages and income taxes a breeze. No "House Rules" are allowed, either. Best of all, up to eight can play, with any number of computer players, so you'll never be short of real estate trading partners!

ZOMBIE NATION

If you want bizarre, check out Zombie Nation from Meldac. This weird wonder, which was showing at the last CES as Darc Seed, follows the action as a ghostly samurai journeys to the U.S. to defeat the alien menace Darc Seed, which has turned America into a nation of zombies. It's not just the plot that's weird though; the samurai is portrayed as a giant floating head that spits fireballs at attacking zombies. In addition to zombie controlled tanks and airplanes, the Samurai must fight an animated Statue Of Liberty. Talk about keen!
Last August, Tokyo sizzled with the unveiling of the Super Famicom from Nintendo. The excitement was about the future of the 16 bit system and the fantastic games that programmers will be able to create for it. Awesome graphics and almost-live digital sound are only part of the story. Extra controller buttons give you a better handle on the action. More enemies than ever can be programmed into the games for greater challenge. And characters can grow in size or shrink into the distance. Below are three sneak peek examples.

SUPER MARIO BROS. 4

From giant characters to an almost 3-D look, Super Mario World showcases the dramatic abilities of the Super Famicom. To place Mario in a world of many depths, programmers used multiple scrolling backgrounds. Up to four independent backgrounds can be scrolled, with moving objects (like Mario) appearing either in front of or behind the scenes. Characters can also be manipulated using a multiplication feature that smoothly increases or decreases size.

Imagine Bullet Bills the size of houses! Hey, the bigger they are the harder they fall, right? Everything about Super Mario World is bigger and better. Messages, mushrooms and a friendly dragon pop out of blocks along the way. How about riding the dragon? You bet, and you'll want to feed your pet, too. Just don't let him run away! Mario himself has a new jump that spins him around like a whirlwind. There are more surprises and fun than ever before, and that says a lot.

The excitement of driving in F-Zero is partly due to speed, partly to great graphics and sound and partly the thrill of the race itself. From aerial refueling to spectacular crash and burn explosions, every second is a blast.

Whoever said falling off a log was easy never did it from 2500 feet! But in Pilotwings it can be fun. Learn to survive parachutes, gliders, biplanes, jetpacks and other thrills.

The graphics are truly spectacular. On some flights you can scroll 360 degrees around the horizon, then change the perspective from straight ahead to a dizzying straight down view.
UNINVITED

Hot on the heels of Deja Vu comes Uninvited, another game from Kemco-Seika with Shadowgate style gameplay. As in Deja Vu, you start the game regaining consciousness in a weird situation—this time your car has crashed outside of a foreboding mansion and your sister is missing! Of course, you have no choice but to enter the creepy chateau to search for her... This Game Pak is full of magic, menace and mystery and is not for the squeamish (but it's all in good fun). After Uninvited, Kemco-Seika plans to release an NES version of one of Interplay's P.C. fantasy games, Dragon Wars. Meanwhile, make plans to check out the Uninvited—it's ghoulishly fun!

They should have posted NO TRESPASSING!

GALAXY 5000

Futuristic racing in space is the subject of this driving game from Activision. Galaxy 5000 features two-player simultaneous play and the ability to buy more advanced racing machines with the credits you earn for winning. The graphics are clean and solid and the combat aspect of the game (which should appeal to Auto Duel fans) lets you release some of the frustration you may have if you've ever sat in traffic.

MINI-PUTT

Miniature golf has so far been overlooked as a subject for an NES game, but no longer, thanks to JVC. Mini-Putt features tons of kooky courses full of crazy slopes, narrow greens and tricky mechanized gates. A variety of courses and skill levels will let players of any ability get into the game. Other variables that affect play, like the weather, are also included to add authenticity. The only things missing from the prototype version we played was a few pink elephants, windmills and giant tea cups.

They should have also given you the option to use a pool cue on some holes because you'll have to master the bank-putt to score under par.
GOSSIP GALORE

CAPCOM CONTINUES TO DESIGN FOR DISNEY

Capcom plans to continue its success with NES games based on Disney characters and recently signed an agreement to do four more titles for the NES and Game Boy (see the Game Boy section for more info on these titles). The next NES release will be TaleSpin, which is based on a new Disney cartoon that airs on the “Disney Afternoon” program.

WHO ARE THE BATTLE TOADS?

What kind of game would have all the good guys croak? Battle Toads, from Tradewest. But who are the Battle Toads? Rumor has it that they are starring in Tradewest’s action-packed answer to the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles. It’s being programmed by Rare.

In other Tradewest news, Dan O’Bannon, who was scriptwriter on “Alien” and “Total Recall,” will work on the pilot for a live-action program based on the game “Double Dragon.” Stay tuned for more info.

AMERICAN SAMMY LIGHTS THE MAGIC CANDLE

American Sammy will be publishing “The Magic Candle” for the Nintendo Entertainment System. Sammy was quite excited to obtain the rights to this hot P.C. role playing game.

WHERE IS DARKMAN?

Ocean plans to make a NES game based on last summer’s sci-fi movie Darkman. We’ll shed some light on the subject soon.

BO KNOWS NINTENDO

Data East knows Bo Jackson and is planning to create a baseball game starring the well-nigh omnipotent sportsman. At press time it was undetermined if any of the other sports Bo knows will be included.

CAPTAIN NINTENDO

Because of the continuing success of Nintendo Power and the extended hours of the Nintendo Game Play Counselor Service, we have decided that the Captain Nintendo Adventure Line is no longer needed to provide players with tips and game release information. Thanks to Bob Zenk and Susan Rann for providing the voices of Captain Nintendo and Xon, and to Gordon Glasscock, Kathleen Hopkins and the folks at Temlocken for an always excellent job of production.

BEWARE OF “BIG SCREEN” BURN

If you have a big screen projection television (PT) and use it to play Tetris, you run the risk of having game graphics show up during The Simpsons. In fact, all video games can damage your PT. Video games aren't the only culprits, though. Because of the way PTs are designed, any fixed or repetitive images—even test patterns—can imprint permanently. Regular televisions have not had problems with screen burn-in. We all like to see larger-than-life graphics, so it's tempting to play games on PTs, which are usually 31" or larger. It's not worth the risk, though, especially when you consider the high cost of PT repairs. So the final word is: DO NOT USE YOUR VIDEO GAMES WITH PROJECTION TELEVISIONS. We now print this warning in our NES instruction manuals, but it's the PT manufacturer's responsibility to instruct buyers in proper use. If you have any problems or questions regarding your PT, please contact its manufacturer.

Gremlins II: The fiesty fur-balls are back. Expect the unexpected, though—this one is nothing like the NES version. Gizmo goes wild in Clamp Centre, and when Gremlins get loose, there may be mayhem.

RATING THE GAMES: A special look behind the scenes

Will it be FANTastic or will it fizzle? Next month, we’ll show you how we arrive at the power meter ratings you see in every issue. See what the experts look for in great games!

Dear Readers,

Our new monthly format is really keeping us on our toes! You've probably noticed some other changes in format, too. The new, longer reviews, for example. Instead of giving you quick reviews on lots of different games, we're concentrating on more complete reviews of the really hot ones! And we'll be including technical articles, like this month's feature on Game Pak memory. I've gone to great lengths to keep on top of what's new. Of course, the latest—and greatest—is the Super Famicom. And Super Mario Bros. 4? What can I say—the graphics and sound are unbelievable! I toured developers in other countries, too, including Rare Ltd. and Ocean Soft in England. I know you're wondering if that much traveling is all work and no play. Well, mostly, but I did find time for some tourist action in London—and I was glad to see that Big Ben was right on time!
Look for the Nintendo seal of quality on games, accessories, and a whole lot more. It’s your guarantee that you’ve pushed the right button for top-playing fun and games — only from Nintendo.
Our goal is to try and preserve classic videogame magazines from years gone by before they are lost forever.

Thanks goes out to all the people who make this possible. From the original editors and writers, to everyone involved in acquiring and digitizing these magazines.

People interested in helping us out, in whatever way possible. Either by donating classic magazines, scanning, editing or distributing them, visit us at http://www.retromags.com

We are only interested in preserving classic magazines that are at least 5 years out of print.

We have no desire or intention to profit from these in any way. So please, if you come across people trying to sell these releases, don't support them!

Thank You and ENJOY!
